CINCINNATI, April 26.—Somebody has come at last, and Convention rumors begin to have some foundation in the gabble of the streets, saloons and hotels. As yet a majority of the arrivals are from Missouri, and the pressure for GRATZ BROWN is consequently greater at present than for any one else. GROSVENOR and PALMTEER have got to work with their famous "Bill and Joe" Committee, which they call the Liberal Republican State Committee of Missouri, and are endeavoring to impress upon all comers that the only way to beat GRANT is with GRATZ BROWN. They are very sly, however, and except when getting confidential with some one they hope to win, deny that they have any candidate, and claim to be fighting this thing on principle. The Brown men appear to be making some converts, and it is now claimed he will develop considerable strength outside of Missouri, getting support in Kentucky and all the Southern States which will have pseudo-representatives here, and in several of the Western States he is understood to be the candidate of the Free-Trade League, and to represent anti-protection. It is likely that at the outset BROWN will develop more strength than any other one candidate, and that after him, ADAMS will have the best chance. But there is no certainty that either will be required to drop the bone he has to snap at the shadow, for other "soreheads" have powerful friends who are endeavoring to make up for their late appearance in the field by extraordinary energy. DEFREES is rushing about in a state of frenzy, seeking to galvanise the Davis interest, and may succeed in bringing his man out with some show of success.

GOV. PALMER'S candidacy appears to be somewhat of a domestic character as his private secretary was his first commissary, and now his son appears as his mouth-piece. He has, however, other backing both in Illinois and Indiana, and it is not improbable that should the BROWN men find that their favorite cannot win, they will concentrate on PALMER. Therefore, the humbler Governor must be counted among the possibilities.

TRUMBULL comes up with only Springfield support at first, and although it is impossible to say what strange things may occur, he is not worth taking into the calculation of chances just now.

The announcement that New-York will go for HORACE GREELEY, does not cause any excitement, as it is understood that such action, if taken, will be only complimentary, and without any intention that he shall be the nominee. The free-traders may not insist on a distinct enunciation of their dogma, although it is probable they will; but it is certain that they will not accept a protectionist like Mr. GREELEY for their candidate. His chances, therefore, are not worth counting, and nobody here, except some few personal admirers, thinks of him as a possibility.

Only one thing can be said with entire confidence, which is that the men who shall call themselves delegates from New-York, Ohio, Indiana, Illinois and Missouri will really control the Convention, both in its declaration of principles—if it makes any—and in naming the candidates. If Pennsylvanians do not obtrude their tariff ideas, they will also be of weight and have a voice in deciding matters. In these States, as a whole, BROWN and ADAMS stand now about equal, but as New-York and Ohio are not expected to take BROWN for the first place under any circumstances, the chances of ADAMS are consequently considered best.

For a body of men who declare uncompromising war on office-holders, each faction of these people is making extraordinary exertions to secure a hope of spoils by getting in its favorite, and hence the confusion that exists. If there was any unanimity among them it would be possible to guess at their action, but where half a dozen cliques are working with might and main, like veteran wire-pullers, as they all are, such a feat is manifestly impossible. Only the drift of sentiment can be ascertained, and as that points, as stated, to ADAMS or BROWN, with PALMER, TRUMBULL and DAVIS thrown in as possibilities, these people are as much at sea as to measures as to men. None of those here will hazard a guess upon the action of the Convention as to a platform, and where there is so much uncertainty it is safe to predict that the platform will contain nothing whatever of substance. It is impossible to see how anything can be said on the tariff or on the abrogation of disabilities, for there will be some earnest but misguided Republicans here who will not tolerate anything which even threatens a chance for the return of the rebels to power. This is, in fact, one of the very weakest parts of the movement, for most of the Republicans who have been decoyed into it do not hesitate to declare that if it comes to mean a Democrat or GRANT they are unequivocally for GRANT. Such talk can be heard from the most pronounced of "Liberals," always excepting the Brown faction, who are exclusively engaged in an attempt to hoist the blonde Missourian into the Presidency, and do not care much for either men or principles. Even this faction, however, admit difficulties in the way of harmonious action, and do not pretend to claim that the Convention is going to be a success. Epitomized, their talk is that the Convention may name the next President, but it is impossible to say that it will. These men are the most sanguine of all the "Liberals." The mood of the remainder can be easily guessed.

The extravagant estimate as to the number to be in attendance has also been dropped, and Col. GROSVENOR today, in consultation with the Committee of Arrangements, said it is more than probable that 5,000 persons will come here to attend Conventions, thus putting the highest reasonable number at the same figure the TIMES did some days ago. Very many of these will be Democrats, and a majority of the remainder will be lukewarm "Liberals" on the class just named, leaving a most begarrly array for simon-pure "sorehends," composed exclusively of disappointed politicians. The Democrats who come here are expected to be mostly on the interest of DAVIS, but those of the better class favor ADAMS. As a rule, however, the Democrats seem to be standing aloof, waiting for events.

There have been many arrivals today, especially of correspondents of the leading journals in all parts of the Union, so that it will not be easy to record the exploits of January at Jefferson City, and make a success out of a fiasco. Seats have been provided on the platform for 500 representatives of the Press, and whatever happens will be sure to be thoroughly ventilated.

In addition to the correspondents, about a third of the so-called delegates have arrived, in addition to the Missouri men, and others are expected on route, but as yet nobody of prominence has arrived here. JOSIE COCHRANE is coming to-morrow, and Gen. H. A. BARNUM is announced for Monday.

The news here, from an authoritative source, is that Mr. GREELEY will not be present, but that Senator PENDLETON with AUGUST BELMONT, having found lager-flowing, out of season, poor prospects to return here to-morrow to the rooms he was careful to engage at the St. Nicholas, where he passed through here the other day, and when he will be prepared to enter into negotiations for the surrender of the Democratic Party if favorable terms are offered.

The late train to-night have brought no prominent "sorehends" except Hon. J. K. MOORHEAD, WILSON MCCANDLESS, JAMES BERGNER and C. D. BINGHAM, all from Pittsburg. A majority of those intending to take part in the attempt to murder the Republican Party are expected to reach here to-morrow or Sunday.

How the Movement is Worked in Washington.

Special Dispatch to the New-York Times.

WASHINGTON, April 26.—An instance of the manner in which the Liberal Republican movement has been manipulated occurred here last evening. A meeting of German Liberals had been called to hear a report from Mr. ULKE, heretofore Chairman of the German Republican Club, who had been selected by the gathering in the basement of DEFREES's house as one of those to go to Cincinnati. The meeting last night was largely attended by Germans, not all of the Liberal stripe by any means. A great scene of confusion took place, caused by ULKE's endeavor to make a long speech defending his action, and denouncing all those who differed with him as cowardly, office-holding menials. His abuse continued for three-quarters of an hour, when he was compelled to cease, and, with three or four followers, left the meeting in disgust. Those that remained then repudiated Cincinnati in toto, but the important and amusing fact came out in ULKE's speech, that the delegation from this district to Cincinnati was under surveillance by SCHURZ and committees who waited upon him for that purpose.

THE JUBILEE COLISEUM DOWN.

Half of the Towers and Trusses During a Fresh Breeze—No One Injured.

BOSTON, Mass., April 26.—About 7½ o'clock this evening the people in various parts of the city were startled by hearing what sounded like a peal of thunder, apparently coming from the south-west. The persons living in the vicinity of the Jubilee Coliseum building had, however, a speedy solution of the mystery, for it was found the cigantic truss wall and towers of the building had fallen in a mass of ruins. The report of the terrible crash was heard for miles. One of the end towers had reached the height of 110 feet, while the truss destroyed was 140 feet high and had a span of 300 feet. Nearly 80,000 feet of lumber had been used in the construction of the truss. The wind was blowing at the rate of forty miles an hour when the disaster occurred. It had been blowing more or less during the afternoon, and about 4 o'clock 150 feet of the eastern truss of the building, next to the Providence Railroad, was blown down. Several watchmen were in the vicinity of the building, and a train of cars was passing, but no one was injured. The accident will cause only temporary delay in the building operations. A large force of men will be at work to clear away the debris, and an increased number of workmen will commence at once to put the structure again in proper shape. Nearly a dozen of the large trusses are already finished and ready to be placed in position.

At a meeting of the Executive Committee of the World's Peace Jubilee and International Musical Festival, who were in session at St. James Hotel at the time of the fall of the Coliseum, it was unanimously voted to commence at once the reconstruction of the Coliseum of the same dimensions as heretofore contemplated, and that to this end there be employed such number of workmen as shall insure the completion of the building by the 10th of June, and that in view of the limited time for the proposed work, the general form and construction of the Coliseum of 1869 be substantially adopted.

It was voted that the Executive Committee desire to express to the community their confidence in the nerve, the skill and the zeal of the architects, engineers, contractors and assistants engaged in the erection of the late building.

THE MISSOURI MURDERS.

Particulars of the Killing at the Sixteen of Cass County Bonds.

ST. LOUIS, Mo., April 26.—A special dispatch from Kansas City gives the details of the brutal murder of STEVENSON, CLINE and DUTRO on the railroad train, near Holden, Mo., Wednesday. After the train stopped, four of the mob mounted the locomotive and guarded the engineer with drawn revolvers. The train was then surrounded and CLINE and STEVENSON were called out. CLINE appeared, and after some words regarding his connection with the fraudulent issue of the Cass County bonds, was riddled with bullets and his body thrown by the side track. Several of the crowd emptied their revolvers into his mangled body. STEVENSON was in the baggage car, and had barred the doors against the mob, but the mob broke in the doors with a log of wood, and a volley into the crowd. When the body of the Judge, killing him instantly, STEVENSON's body was dragged out and laid beside that of CLINE. DUTRO, who was in a passenger-car, was mortally wounded. The train was then allowed to start, but was immediately signaled to stop. The dying man, DUTRO, was then dragged from the car and shot down near the dead bodies of CLINE and STEVENSON.

A report reached Kansas City last night that Judge FORSYTH, another of the County Justices, had been shot and his body hanged to a tree. Great excitement prevails throughout the country, and fears are felt that still others will be murdered. The perpetrators of this massacre claim that they have 1,000 men in their organization.

MEXICO.

Further Reinforcements for Matamoras—The Revolution to be Suppressed Within a Month.

MATAMORAS, April 25.—It is reported this evening that the Tobasco has again arrived off the mouth of the Rio Grande, with a reinforcement of about 300 men for this city from Tampico, and funds to supply the army.

Gen. AYALA, of Monterey, in command of the National Guard here for some weeks past, has been appointed Governor of the State of Nuevo Leon, by President JUAREZ.

Gen. CEVALLOS expresses confidence that the revolution will be suppressed within a month, and the roads to the interior opened to commerce.

THE WEATHER.

Synopsis and Probabilities.

WASHINGTON, D. C., April 27—1 A. M.—The lowest barometer has moved eastwardly from Minnesota down the St. Lawrence Valley. The pressure is highest over Minnesota. Cloudy weather, with light rain, is now prevailing north and west of the Ohio Valley. Clear and pleasant weather, with northerly winds, over the New-England and Middle States, and with southerly winds over the Southern States.

PROBABILITIES.

The barometer will continue rising over the New-England and Middle States, with partially cloudy but pleasant weather, except over the lower lake region, where light rain may continue. Clear weather will generally continue over the Southern States, cloudy and threatening weather, with probably light rain, from the Ohio Valley northward and westward.

Dangerous winds are not anticipated.

SPRINGFIELD, Mass., April 26.—The day has been extraordinarily warm. At 2 P. M. the thermometer stood at 86° in the shade.

Steinbold's Sale.

The sale of the stock and fixtures of the drug store No. 594 Broadway, lately occupied by Dr. H. T. STEINBOLD, took place yesterday, by order of the Supreme Court. There was a very large attendance, most of them having dropped in from mere curiosity. The auctioneer, Mr. BENJAMIN P. FAIRCHILD, sold the articles very low. The only thing which brought anything like a fair price was one of MATTHEWS' soda-fountains, which cost $8,000, and was sold for $800, Mr. MATTHEWS being the purchaser.

WASHINGTON.

The Government on the Question of Indirect Claims.

The Washington Treaty Strictly Adhered to—The Claims Not Withdrawn—Fernando Wood on Money Lock-Ups—Senator Trumbull and the Right-Hour Law.

Special Dispatch to the New-York Times.

WASHINGTON, April 26.—The sensational dispatches which have been sent from here within the past few days in regard to the action of this Government on the question of indirect claims, are utterly without authority and substantially without truth. They are the result wholly of the manipulations of certain busybodies and political intriguers, who assume to conduct the affairs of both nations over the breakfast-tables of such dignitaries as may be inveigled into making them a tender of their hospitalities. The only good that has resulted from these pretended outgivings is to convince the Government that no matter what it may do to save the arbitration at Geneva, its action is to be misrepresented for political effect. That is already open. But the fact is that the position of the Government today on this question is unchanged. The indirect claims are not withdrawn. They will not be withdrawn, unless Great Britain makes such a concession inside or outside of the Geneva Tribunal, as will grant the point for which they were inserted, to wit: a settlement of the question involved. The Government is sincerely anxious to save the arbitration. It has been unjustly accused of unnecessary stubbornness in the matter. It has never intimated that it expected any award of pecuniary damages for the indirect claims, and it does not believe the people expect it. But it believed, and it still believes, that it had a perfect right to present them, and to have them decided. A decision is all it wants, and if Great Britain does not agree to a decision of the question, then she must take the responsibility of not only breaking the treaty, but of refusing to meet this Government's most generous advances in a spirit of fairness and candor.

FERNANDO WOOD ON LOCKUPS OF MONEY.

Hon. FERNANDO WOOD made an argument before the Banking and Currency Committee today in favor of his Anti-Lockup bill. He was of opinion that the enormous issue of Government bonds and other securities, growing out of the war, &c., have within the last few years worked a complete revolution in the whole financial system of the country, which has its effect in Europe. The business of the country has largely increased even since 1865, to transact all of which requires a large increase in the amount of currency. He believed that the currency has not increased in anything like the same proportion as the business, and although he was not an expansionist, he was of the opinion that we had not today circulation enough. He accounted for the frequent lockups and other financial disturbances and speculations in New-York in this way. That City is the money centre of the Continent. At certain periods of the year there is a redundancy of money, and the banks who pay interest on the deposits are willing to lend at almost any rate of interest and on almost any security. Then, again, there is another period, when money is scarce, owing to the excessive demand for it, wants of trade for the movement of the crops, &c., when it commands very high rates. There is thus a constant ebb and flow which large capitalists are quick to avail themselves of—men like VANDERBILT and DANIEL DREW, who put up and down stocks and other securities as they please. The question was, how could this be prevented? He alluded to the Bank of England, which regulated the monetary interests of Great Britain, and put up and down the rate of interest whenever they deem it expedient to encourage or check speculation. He was in favor of the Treasury Department acting in a somewhat similar way, if it could be possibly done. The business interests of the country required a regulator; some means by which the currency could be made more elastic. Mr. MERRIAM thought that the same speculators who now control the money market could easily take the entire loan proposed by the bill. Mr. WOOD believed that the rate of eight per cent. interest provided by his bill would be an effectual check against that. Mr. MONROE thought that it would lead from instead of toward specie payments. Mr. HOOPER did not consider it a prudent measure, inasmuch as it authorized the Secretary of the Treasury to go into the market as a dealer in money, which was wrong and unwise. He believed that one cause of the financial disturbances that occur from time to time in New-York was that the banks did not keep a sufficient reserve. He doubted if it was not in his opinion practical, for the reason that when the Secretary of the Treasury had loaned out $40,000,000 there would soon be a demand for $40,000,000 more. He referred to the returns of the New-York banks for April 13 and 20, which showed a loss on first date the reserve was below the twenty-five per cent. required by a law, and on the last but little more than a million in excess. Under these circumstances a small amount retired from circulation seriously affects the money market. The Committee did not seem to be very favorable to the scheme of Mr. WOOD, although they feel the necessity of some legislation in this direction.

MORTON AND JULIAN.

The friends of Senator MORTON take exceptions to the statement made in the TRIBUNE correspondent's letter from Indianapolis, to the effect that that Senator had driven Hon. GEO. W. JULIAN out of the Republican Party, and deny its correctness. It is alleged, on the contrary, that JULIAN, through his newspaper at Richmond, has waged unrelenting war against Senator MORTON for ten years, and further alleged that JULIAN became disaffected to the party when he was beaten for the nomination for the House two years ago, and has been intriguing against it ever since.

SENATOR TRUMBULL TURNS A POLITICAL SOMERSAULT.

Mr. TRUMBULL today demonstrated, in the completest manner, how a Presidential candidate in the Senate, with rules to make, is compelled to eat his own words, and to literally go back on his own record in a manner as once low as to be impossible for any other Senator who is about to have a hand in a Convention are likely to make use of that record to the detriment of his own aspirations. The fact is a pitiful one to contemplate. When the proposition came into the Senate early in the present session to pass a bill to adjust and equalize the pay to civilians employed in the service of the Government under the different considerations of eight-hour law, which prevailed for a time after its passage, Mr. TRUMBULL opposed it very warmly, objecting to its consideration, and at last, to embarrass it and defeat it, moved an amendment repealing the Eight-hour law altogether. His opposition killed the bill away, and it has not been able to recover any attention since. In the Deficiency Appropriation bill the House put an amendment embodying the provisions of that law. This amendment was stricken out in the Senate Committee of the Whole, but today an attempt was made to reconsider that action, which succeeded, and the House amendment was reported to, and Mr. TRUMBULL rose twice with the small majority which carried it, being so anxious as to remain, hat in hand, after he had taken it from the clock-room to leave the Chamber and to record himself on the list of voters. It was noted two or three days ago that the Davis men were about to bring Mr. TRUMBULL's record on this bill into the canvass at Cincinnati.

AMENDING THE RULES.

Senator SCOTT today introduced a motion to amend the rules for the remainder of this session, so that, by a vote of the Senate, debate on appropriation bills may at any time be abridged by limiting speeches to ten minutes. Objection was made by Mr. BLAKE and no action was taken today.

THE MAY INTEREST.

The Treasury order for the payments of the May interest without rebate from 30th inst., includes also interest on the new loan. Assistant Treasurers are directed to pay all interest checks on presentation without reference to their date.

ALBANY.

Fair Prospect for Impeaching the Corrupt Judges.

Gov. Hoffman's Intentions Regarding the Charter—He will Veto or Sign It—A Bill to Continue the Greenwich-Street Rail-way—Change of Day for the Charter Election.

From Our Own Correspondent.

ALBANY, Friday, April 26, 1872.

The question of impeachment, and the report of the Judiciary Committee on the New-York Judges, came up again in the Assembly this morning and occupied the larger portion of the session. The discussion opened by Mr. PRINCE calling from the table his resolution as amended yesterday, in the words following, to wit:

Resolved, That the House constitute its legislative business, as far as possible, on Wednesday, May 1, at 12 o'clock, noon; that the report of the Judiciary Committee on the charges against certain Judges in New-York City be made a special order for that day and hour; that the House then enter upon "proceedings for impeachment," and that notice thereof be given to the Honorable the Senate and to the Controller of the State.

The question being on the substitute offered by Mr. ALVORD yesterday, that the House make the consideration of the report of the Judiciary Committee a special order for May 1, (saying nothing about "proceedings for impeachment,") Mr. ALVORD protested against the idea which seemed to prevail among members that the resolution of Mr. PRINCE would give them a right to draw pay after the 1st of May. It was clear and beyond dispute to his mind that "proceedings for impeachment," as contemplated by the Constitution, would only commence from the time the Court of Impeachment convened for the trial of the Judges.

Mr. NILES asked if Mr. PRINCE's resolution said anything about "pay," to which Mr. ALVORD replied that it was well known that the sole object in wording the resolution in that way was that members might draw pay. This fact was well understood on all hands, and while, in his opinion, it would not have that effect, it was also objectionable because it implied that the Judges were to be impeached before members had had an opportunity to see the report of the Committee or to hear the evidence.

Mr. PRINCE replied, calling attention to the fact that the Judiciary Committee had been severely criticised for their delay in this matter, and expressing surprise that their first step toward bringing the subject before the House should encounter opposition from a source that had criticised their alleged unnecessary delay. There was an evident misapprehension as to the purport of his resolution. The words, "enter upon proceedings for impeachment" did not necessarily imply that the Judges would be impeached. They were merely the initiatory steps toward impeachment. The resolution followed the precedent of 1853 precisely.

Mr. FORT argued, with ALVORD, that the resolution ought not to take that form, and, the question being put on ALVORD's amendment, it was lost—ayes, 59; nays, 71. Mr. PRINCE's resolution was then adopted, by a vote of 76 to 38.

On the announcement of this vote Speaker SMITH called Mr. HUSTED to the chair, and, taking the floor, moved a reconsideration. He followed up the motion with an argument of considerable length against Mr. PRINCE's resolution, taking substantially the same ground as Mr. ALVORD. He thought it unnecessary to pass a resolution that the House would conclude its legislative business on a certain day, "as far as possible," since it ought to be taken for granted that the House was doing its business with proper and reasonable dispatch; and as to the question of the right of members to draw pay after the 1st of May, that would depend on the question when "proceedings for impeachment" legally commenced, and the passage of this resolution would not affect it one way or the other.

Mr. TILDEN then took the floor, and after indulging in some reminiscences of the Convention of 1846, which framed the present Constitution, and of which he was a member, said that he had consulted some of the most eminent jurists of the State, and he was fully satisfied that "proceedings for impeachment," as contemplated in the clause of the Constitution regarding the pay of members, commenced from the time the first steps were taken by the House looking toward impeachment. They had already been convened by this Assembly, and had been going on from the time the Judiciary Committee was instructed to investigate charges against the Judges, involving the probability or possibility of their impeachment. He should vote against reconsideration.

Mr. VEDDER and Mr. NILES also spoke against the motion to reconsider, and the vote being taken it was lost—yeas 41, nays 87.

The report of the Committee will, therefore, be made the special order for Wednesday next, and there is no doubt that a majority of the Committee will recommend impeachment. Some of the Committee are of the opinion that the evidence against the Judges is of a character warranting removal from office by resolution rather than impeachment, but this plan would require a two-thirds vote, whereas impeachment can be carried by a majority. As it is well understood that a large amount of money will be forthcoming to protect the Judges from any kind of punishment, it is perhaps safer to adopt the plan of getting rid of the corrupt Judges, which will require the least number of votes. That articles of impeachment will be presented there is not a shadow of doubt. HARPER's corruption fund to the contrary notwithstanding.

THE CHARTER.

The hearing before the Governor on the New-York Charter was understood to be closed yesterday, but Mr. RUGGLES, who was desirous of presenting his views, and who did not arrive in time yesterday, was granted an audience with the Governor this morning. The opinion still prevails that the charter will be vetoed. It is certain that the Governor regards it as the worst form of Municipal government ever devised for New-York City. Very little doubt is a member of the Committee of Seventy today that, if it became a law, every man who had been connected with it would, in his opinion, regret it in less than a year. If the Governor signs it, it will be solely out of deference to the Committee of Seventy, for he says he has seen nobody a man outside of that body who advocated it. Two definite items of information were obtained from him today as to his action in regard to it. The first is, that he will either sign or veto it, and will not let it go by default. The other is that his decision, whatever it may be, will not be rendered till the fore part of next week, probably on Tuesday.

MORE BROOKLYN BILLS PASSED.

The bill to reorganize the Brooklyn Excise Board, and also the bill to reorganize the Board of Charities and Corrections in that city, passed the Assembly today by a party vote. The Excise Commissioners are to be appointed by the Mayor, Controller, Auditor and President of Prospect Park Commissioners, and Commissioners to consist of three members, and to hold office for three years. The Board of Charities and Correction is appointed by the same officials.

GREENWICH-STREET ELEVATED RAILWAY.

The Senate Railroad Committee reported favorably the bill introduced yesterday by Mr. TILLMAN to permit this Company to extend its tracks to Grayton Duryil Creek. North of One Hundredth-street the road may be built upon the surface where the ground is high, or upon trestle-work where it is low. The fare is fixed at ten cents for all distances less than ten miles, and fifteen cents for distances in excess of ten miles.

COMMISSIONERS OF EMIGRATION.

The Senate Committee on Commerce and Navigation reported the Assembly bill reorganizing the Commissioners of Emigration, with a change of names. The Commissioners now in the bill are Hugh Gardner, George Starr, Willy Wallack, Wisner S. Townsend, Alexander W. Harvey, Andrew W. Leggett, William Lambeer, and the Presidents of the German and the Irish Emigration Societies ex officio.

SPECIAL CHARTER ELECTION.

The Assembly Bill to make provision for the special charter election in New-York City on the fourth Tuesday of May was reported favorably in the Senate today, without material amendment.

OYER AND TERMINER.

The Assembly bill permitting the assignment by the Court of Appeals on motion of the Attorney-General of Supreme Court Justices to hold Oyer and Terminer in counties not in their own districts, was favorably reported by the Senate Judiciary Committee without amendment.

PUBLIC LIBRARY BILL.

Mr. JUDD's bill to authorize the formation of town, city and village libraries was reported today and passed the Senate. It has been amended so as to require the assent of a majority of the tax-payers of each town, city or village to the establishment of a library therein.

THE FOURTH-AVENUE TRACK.

The bill providing for the excavation and vaulting of the railroad track on Fourth-avenue has been promptly reported by the Senate Railroad Committee without change.

EAST BROADWAY AND BATTERY RAILROAD.

The Senate this morning reconsidered and passed the bill authorising this Company to extend their railroad tracks from Avenue D, through and along Tenth-street, with a double track, to the East River; also through and along Fourteenth-street from First-avenue, with a double track, to University-place; through and along University-place, with a single track to Fifteenth-street; thence through and along West Thirteenth-street to Horatio-street; thence through and along Horatio-street to Washington-street; thence through and along Washington-street to Christopher-street; thence through and along Christopher-street with a double track to the North River; returning, with a single track from Washington-street, through and along Christopher-street to Greenwich-street; through and along Greenwich-street to West Eleventh-street, and along West Eleventh or Hammond-street with a single track to Green-wich-avenue, and across Greenwich-avenue to Seventh-avenue; through and along Seventh-avenue to West Twelfth-street; through and along West Twelfth-street to University-place; thence through and along University-place by an additional track to Fourteenth-street, together with the necessary connections, turnouts, switches, curves and side-tracks for the complete operation of the road; and the necessary privilege is granted; also, with a single track through and along Broome-street from East-street to Columbia-street; also, with a single track through and along Delancey-street from Lewis-street to East-street; also, with a double track through and along East-street from Delancey-street to Grand-street. The necessary connections for Monroe and Corlears streets to the present stables and car-house of the Company on Corlears-street, between Monroe-street and Cherry-street, with the necessary connections, turnouts, curves and switches for said extensions.

The Company is required to make compensation to the City for the use and occupation of the streets and places named. Damages to be assessed in the usual manner by the Supreme Court.

Election Day Changed to May 31—Tax Levy Passed in the Assembly—Brooklyn Bills Sent to the Governor.

Special Dispatch to the New-York Times.

ALBANY, April 26.—The Senate this evening passed the Assembly bill providing for a charter election in New-York City on Friday, the 31st day of May.

The Local Prohibition bill was discussed again in Committee of the Whole, and again progressed. It is not likely to pass this session.

The Congressional Apportionment bill was ordered to a third reading in the Senate, and made a special order for Monday evening in the House.

The Assembly this evening took up the New-York Tax Levy, the vote on which was reconsidered last night, and after striking out the fifth and sixth sections passed it by a vote of 77 to 8.

The following is the bill as passed to-night:

AN ACT to make provision for the local Government of the City and County of New-York, for the year eighteen hundred and seventy-two, and to provide for the settlement and payment of claims against the same.

The People of the State of New-York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section one of chapter one hundred and eighty-three of the laws of eighteen hundred and seventy-one, entitled "An act to make provision for the local Government of the City and County of New-York," is hereby amended so as to read as follows:

SECTION 1. The Board of Supervisors of the City of New-York are authorised and required to raise by tax upon the estates, real and personal, subject to taxation in the City and County of New-York, in the year eighteen hundred and seventy-two, the amount directed to be raised by the Board mentioned in the third section of this act, which amount shall not exceed in the aggregate a sum equal to two and three-quarters per cent upon the valuation of such estates fixed for the year eighteen hundred and seventy-one, by the Commissioners of Taxes and Assessments for the City and County of New-York, in addition to the sums, if any, of the quota of the State tax for said county over the amount charged on said county for State taxes in the year eighteen hundred and seventy. But the aggregate amount raised, including the State taxes, shall not exceed the sum of twenty-five millions of dollars. And in the year eighteen hundred and seventy-two, the said Board of Supervisors are authorised and required to raise in the same manner the amount directed to be raised by the third section of this act, or by such other authority as shall be vested by law with the power to direct the amount to be raised in said City and County, which amount shall not exceed in the aggregate a sum equal to two and three-quarters per cent. upon the valuation of such estates fixed for the year eighteen hundred and seventy-one, by the Commissioners of Taxes and Assessments for the City and County, in addition to the excess, if any, of the quota of the State tax for said County over the amount charged on said County for State taxes in the year eighteen hundred and seventy, notwithstanding the aggregate amount so raised, including the State taxes, shall exceed the sum of twenty-five millions of dollars.

SEC. 2. Out of the sum hereby authorized to be raised, shall be paid the amounts appropriated or raised to provide for the apportionments made or to be made under and pursuant to chapters nine and twenty-nine of the laws of eighteen hundred and seventy-two, and the remainder, after the payment of the proceeds of the general fund of said City, for the year eighteen hundred and seventy-two, shall be apportioned and set apart, subject to the provisions of said chapters nine and twenty-nine, as provided and directed by chapter five hundred and eighty-three of the laws of eighteen hundred and seventy-one. The apportionments for eighteen hundred and seventy-two, directed to be made by section three of said chapter five hundred and eighty-three of the laws of eighteen hundred and seventy-one, may be made at any time within twenty days after the 1st day of May, eighteen hundred and seventy-two, by the votes of a majority of the members of the Board created by said section.

SEC. 3. It shall be lawful for the Controller of said City to apply any money now in the treasury of said City or County, or that may hereafter be derived from taxes or revenues outstanding and due to the City or County general funds, on the first day of January, eighteen hundred and seventy-two, or that may be hereafter paid into the treasury on account to which they have been temporarily advanced, to the payment of the revenue bonds of the City or County of New-York now outstanding and unpaid which were issued pursuant to the provisions of chapter one of the laws of eighteen hundred and seventy-two, to provide means for the payment of revenue bonds of eighteen hundred and seventy-one, falling due on or about the seventh day of January, eighteen hundred and seventy-two, any acts or laws to the contrary notwithstanding.

SEC. 4. To provide the means to pay the revenue bonds of the City or County of New-York, issued, or to be issued, pursuant to the provisions of the said chapter nine or twenty-nine of the laws of eighteen hundred and seventy-two, and also to pay such of the revenue bonds of the City or County of New-York, falling due in the year eighteen hundred and seventy-three, as may be unpaid at the time of the issue of the bonds hereby authorized, and to provide the means to pay the interest thereon, the Mayor, Aldermen and Commonal

FORTY-SECOND CONGRESS.

SECOND SESSION.

SENATE....WASHINGTON, Friday, April 26.

The Goat Island bill was laid before the Senate by the Vice-President and read once, Mr. COLE objecting to the second reading.

CITIZENS OF OREGON.

Mr. CORBETT called up the bill declaring the citizenship of persons born in the Territory of Oregon and now residing in the State of Oregon.

Mr. KELLY explained that it was intended to apply to persons born under the British flag.

Mr. CASSERLY objected to the bill on the ground that it assumed that the claim of the United States to the Territory of Oregon, prior to the treaty with Great Britain, was questionable.

Mr. WILSON introduced a bill to equalize promotions among officers in the army, providing that promotion of commissioned officers shall, in time up to and including the grade of Colonel, be by seniority, artillery and infantry.

BRAZILIAN MAIL SERVICE.

Mr. RAMSEY, from the Committee on Post-offices and Post Roads, reported a bill directing the Postmaster-General to increase the present ocean mail service between Brazil to a semi-monthly service for ten years, at a cost to the United States not exceeding $450,000 per annum.

NO FREE SILKS.

Mr. FENTON, from the Finance Committee, reported adversely on the House bill authorizing free importation of certain highland uniforms, &c., for the Seventy-ninth Regiment of Highland Guards, the New-York National Guard.

AMENDING THE RULES.

Mr. ANTHONY submitted the following, which was referred to the Committee on Rules:

Resolved, That the twenty-eighth rule be amended by adding thereto the following words:

When a bill or joint resolution is under consideration, any pending amendment thereto may be laid on the table without prejudice to the bill, and a motion to lay an amendment on the table shall carry with it an amendment in the second degree.

THE APPROPRIATIONS.

Mr. COLE made a report from the Committee of Conference, on the Legislative Appropriation bill. He explained that the Committee had agreed, that pay, while in session, of members of the Legislature of the District of Columbia, be $3 per day; that the salaries of the Justices of the Court of Claims be $4,500, and had made no increase in the salaries of the United States District Judges.

Mr. CARPENTER called for the yeas and nays, and the report was concurred in—yeas 31, nays 14.

THE DEFICIENCIES.

The unfinished business, the Deficiency bill, was then taken up. The pending question was on concurring in the amendment to equalize the pay of men employed in Government work except under the Eight-hour law.

Mr. AMES advocated the amendment. He denied that the Eight-hour law experiment had proved a failure, and insisted that it should have a fair trial.

Mr. MORTON, (Ind.) objected to both. He denied that the law had been a failure, and said he had good reason to believe that in the Springfield Armory the result of it had been an increased amount of work over what was done on the old system. He said also that there was no doubt that the intention of Congress in passing the Eight-hour law was that the hours of labor should be reduced without any reduction of pay.

After further discussion, the Committee's amendment was rejected, and the section was passed substantially as it came from the House, providing that the proper accounting officers be authorized and required, in the settlement of all accounts for the services of laborers, workmen and mechanics employed by or on behalf of the Government of the United States, from the 20th of June, 1868, to the 1st of July, 1871, to settle and pay the same without reduction on account of the reduction of the hours of labor by the Eight-hour law, when it shall be made to appear that the wages paid were the same as the current wages. It also makes a sufficient appropriation to pay these claims.

The question was also taken on concurring in the amendment offered by Mr. MORRILL, of Vermont, relative to the duties on the relief of citizens of Texas for the value of captured and abandoned property so ceases which were commenced within two years after the suppression of the rebellion, and in which the owners of the claims have proved that they have never given aid or comfort to the rebellion, and it was disagreed from by yeas 32, nays 26.

Mr. STEVENSON moved an amendment appropriating $50,000 to Kentucky for expenses in equipping troops during the rebellion, and made an argument for its adoption.

Mr. SAWYER offered a substitute providing for the payment of claims for arms, equipping and maintaining troops for the service of the United States during the rebellion, but providing that no account should be taken of troops employed after the 1st of May, 1865.

Mr. STEVENSON objected to this as unjust, and read a statement by Gen. JNO. M. PALMER showing that State troops were employed, and were necessary, to keep Slavery loose in Kentucky in the latter part of 1863 and in 1864.

Mr. MORTON said that to believe that Kentucky ought to be compensated for her butlery so far as she could make her claim good, and as he feared that the adoption of the substitute might work injustice, he moved to lay the substitute and the original amendment on the table. Agreed to.

Mr. CORBETT moved as an amendment the bill relating to citizenship of residents of Oregon, (which was laid over in the morning hour,) and it was agreed to.

Mr. FRELINGHUYSEN moved to reconsider the vote by which the Morrill amendment restricting the jurisdiction of the Court of Claims was rejected.

The Senate at 6h. P. M. went into Executive Session and soon after adjourned.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES.

On motion of Mr. WELLS, the Senate bill to amend the act of 8th of March, 1872, for a bridge across the Missouri River at St. Joseph, was taken from the Speaker's table and passed.

THE SPANISH PRISONER.

The House resumed the consideration of the Dr. Houard resolution.

Mr. BANKS, Chairman of the Committee on Foreign Affairs, supported the resolution in a speech in which he went over the main question. He could not follow the lead of the gentleman from Vermont, (WELLS,) by seeking to make the world move backward. It was their duty to progress, and to define anew, in the light of reason and universal right, the constitutions, and privileges, and responsibilities of citizens of one State when residing and domiciled in another State, and in the end the whole law of the world on that question would take its character from the Government of the United States, and from the action of that Government. He denied that there was a shadow of evidence to show that HOUARD's father ever took the oath of allegiance to the Spanish Government. If he had done so he had no record, and the Spanish Government would produce it, and that would be sent to this case. He conceded that if the father of the HOUARDS had abjured his allegiance to the United States and sworn fealty to the Government of Spain, Dr. JOSEPH HOUARD had a right to come to this Government for protection. Referring to the last telegram on the subject from the Secretary-General to the Spanish Government, he said it contained the most unfounded of the lies which he might characterise as absolute falsehoods; and he proceeded to expose their incorrectness. He likened the case of Dr. HOUARD practising his profession as an American physician in Cuba to a naturalized citizen like cases in all the European capitals where American physicians reside, and he affirmed that a man may be domiciled in a foreign country ten, twenty, fifty or a hundred years (if he lived so long) without changing his nationality one particle, while subject to be punished for any violation of the laws of the country where he resided. He contended that as an American citizen, in search of health and convicted according to the forms of law, and that a Court-martial was not a legally recognized tribunal, Dr. HOUARD, he said, had in one minute, that of being sentenced, had been in fact in an instant deprived of those rights which, whether he was born as a German or an African, or even a corporation, the House would have risen to protect him; but he was only an American. And what rights had an American citizen? If any American citizen, he asked, from the arguments against the resolution that he had none. If Dr. HOUARD had been an Englishman, not one hair of his head would have been harmed by the Spanish Government. These facts could never have occurred with reference to Englishmen or Frenchmen, or Germans. The responsibility for the enormities practiced in Cuba on Cubans, on Chinese and on Japanese, lay upon the United States. The United States were responsible for the massacre of hundreds and thousands by the cruel and relentless Volunteers in Cuba within the last five years. The United States were responsible for the execution of nine young men who were executed on the charge of having violated the grave of CASTANON. The Island of Cuba was of such importance to this country that we had proclaimed to the world that no foreign nation should lay hands on it or assume to control its Government, and the consequence was that what was done there was done with the permission of the United States Government. Above everything else, he said, those wrongs if it were not for the fact that the United States stood between Great Britain and Cuba. How long was that state of things to continue? That was a question for other men and for another time; but in regard to this question of the protection of an American citizen who had been thus foully wronged, not only in contravention of the laws of God and man, but in violation of every compact between the two countries—this man ought at least to have a kind word from an American House of Representatives.

The House then proceeded to a vote.

Mr. BANKS withdrew the amendment offered by him last evening.

Mr. AMES moved to lay the resolution on the table, but he subsequently withdrew that motion.

The amendment offered by Mr. BINGHAM, last evening, was agreed to by a vote of 118 to 18.

Mr. MAYNARD moved to strike out the last clause of the original resolution, which affirmed the American citizenship of Dr. HOUARD, and the portion just added by Mr. BINGHAM's motion, which cast a doubt upon the matter.

The Speaker said that there could be a separate vote on the preambles, in which Dr. HOUARD's citizenship is positively asserted.

The resolution, apart from the preamble, was then adopted—yeas 156, nays 43.

The preamble was then amended by making it read:

Whereas, It is alleged that Dr. JOHN EMILIO HOUARD has, after one year's residence and trial by a military court-martial, been convicted of complicity in an insurrection against the Spanish Government in the Island of Cuba, and upon said conviction has been transported to a penal colony in Spain for the term of ten years, without the privilege of appeal or protection to the Government of the United States; and

Whereas, It appears, first, that the said Dr. HOUARD never was, nor is now, a citizen of the State of Louisiana; second, that he never renounced his allegiance as such citizen, but, on the contrary, has claimed to be, and has been enrolled by the officers of the Government of the United States as a citizen thereof; third, that it is not known by any form of proof that he ever became, by any oath, a subject or citizen of the Government of Spain; and

Whereas, It further appears that the trial, sentence and punishment have been in contempt and violation of his undoubted rights as a citizen of the United States, under the Constitution and laws thereof and the treaty of Oct. 27, 1795, between the United States and Spain; therefore

Resolved, That in the judgment of this House the said JOHN EMILIO HOUARD was and is a citizen of the United States by birth and continued and uninterrupted residence, and such is entitled to all and every protection from this Government, and in the opinion of the House, the President should promptly demand his unconditional release and the restoration of his property, which has been confiscated upon the pleas of Spanish Government; unless it shall be made to appear on investigation to the satisfaction of the Executive Department, that the said HOUARD has been legally convicted of an offense recognized by him within the jurisdiction of Spain, and has been prosecuted therefor under authority of law, and according to the course of proceedings usual in like cases, and that the privilege secured to citizens of the United States by the seventh article of the treaty with Spain of the 27th of October, 1795, were neither denied nor disregarded on his trial.

The members voting in the negative were Messrs. Ambler, Barber, Beatty, Blair of Michigan, Bigby, Brooks of Massachusetts, Burchard, Clark of New-York, Coburn, Dawes, Dorman, Finkelnburg, Fyfe, Garfield, Hale, Hayes of Alabama, Hazelton of Wisconsin, Hoar, Lansing, Maynard, McJunkin, Mercer, Monroe, Orr, Packard of Indiana, Palmer, Peters, Platt, Poland, Prindle, R. H. Roberts, Rusk, Sargent, Scofield, Sessions, Shanks, Smith of New-York, Smith of Ohio, Taffe, Upson, Wheaton, Willard, Wilson of Ohio—32.

TARIFF AND ADJOURNMENT.

Mr. DAWES made an effort to go into Committee of the Whole on the Tariff bill.

Mr. DICKEY, as a question of privilege, moved a concurrent resolution for a final adjournment on the 30th of May.

Mr. DAWES said that the Committee on WAYS and Means had been for some time in consultation with Senate upon the question of business, and he suggested meeting at 11 A. M. and sitting till 5 P. M., as a means of finishing all the business before May 30, but it would not be wise to fix any time now.

At the conclusion of which [illegible] was ordered to be printed and recommitted.

THE TARIFF BILL.

The House then, at 3:35, went into Committee of the Whole, Mr. SCOFIELD in the chair, on the Tariff bill, the first reading of which was dispensed with, and the general debate to be closed on Friday next.

Mr. FINKELNBURG, a member of the Committee on Ways and Means, addressed the Committee in support of the bill. He said that it was the first step in the section down the inauguration of the policy of reduction, and as much he besought for it the support of friends of tariff reform. It was true that the reductions proposed in it were very moderate, so much so that the bill stands with apparent justice, be criticised for not going far enough. To was not what the friends of tariff reform desired, but his friends in favor of tariff reform had to give it his support as a practical measure of reduction. In regard to tea and coffee he remarked that the phrase of free tea and coffee was a mere catch-word; but that all that gathered not gold, and so it would be found that as a measure of revenue reform there was a great deal of meat book about free tea and coffee. The duties on these articles was strictly revenue duties, and not commodity duties, and they had yielded a revenue of $19,000,000 last year. The proposed reduction to ten cents and two cents per pound was equal to about thirty-three per cent. on the average. Even in regard to coffee as a luxury—for it was said that tea and coffee were articles of almost universal consumption, and as such should be duty free. He admitted they were luxuries, but not to such a degree as clothing and mechanics' tools, bed blankets and many other articles in the tariff on which there were duties some exceeding 100 per cent., some 80 per cent., and some 60 per cent. He contended that the action of the House—to free traders and protectionists alike to accept the bill.

The conference report on the Legislative, Executive and Judicial Appropriation bill was presented, but as it was not delivered till next Monday, and the House, at 4:40 P. M., adjourned till to-morrow.

The Gordon-Gould Controversy—Each Asking an Attachment Against the Other.

In the case of GORDON vs. GOULD, to compel the return of certain securities and moneys alleged to have been obtained from the former by the latter, by coercion, a motion was made yesterday in Supreme Court, Chambers before Judge BRADY, to dismiss the complaint on the ground that defendant had failed to appear on examination before trial, pursuant to statute; also, for an attachment to punish plaintiff for contempt of Court, in refusing to appear for such examination.

Mr. STRAHAN opposed the motion on the ground that when the order to appear for examination was served on the plaintiff he was not handed the jury fees, and was not therefore compelled to attend; also, that when the order was served the signature of JAY GOULD on the original papers was shown to Mr. GORDON instead of the signature of Judge BRADY, who granted the order. He also moved to dismiss the answer of defendant, and attach him for contempt on similar grounds to those presented by defendant's counsel on his motion.

Counsel for GOULD, then called the attention of the Court to the order served on his client, and claimed that the date was apparently the 26th instead of the 26th.

Judge BRADY thought the order was very plainly dated the 26th, but said he would not allow either to take any advantage of the other on this ground. He would, therefore, grant orders to show cause on both sides why the parties to the action should not severally be attached for failure to appear for examination.

At the suggestion of counsel for defendant, GOULD, the orders were made returnable on next Thursday, when all the other motions in the three suits now pending between the parties shall be heard.

The Gold and Stock Markets—Continued Rise in Prices.

"Bulling the market" was the order of the day in Wall-street yesterday, in the Stock Exchange and the Gold Room. At both places prices sail continued to rise—like the thermometer—the excitement seeming to increase with the heat, except once during the afternoon, when there seemed to be a lull at both Exchanges. The speculation in the Gold Room was very brisk, the price reaching 113¼, the purchase of specie for shipment being frequent. Five hundred thousand dollars in double eagles, in one lot, packed for shipment, was paid out at the specie counter of the Sub-Treasury. The shipments of coin to Europe will begin today, and about $5,500,000 will probably be sent.

Erie and Pacific Mail still continued to be the features of interest in the stock market, Erie rising to 72, on a good business, declining afterward to 69¾, and rallying to 70¾. Rumors regarding the movements in Erie were plentiful—this stock, as usual, being made prolific of improbable and exaggerated reports than any other on the list. The only one worthy of mention was that Mr. DANIEL DREW was the originator of it. In some way not very explicitly stated, with the object of putting out a fresh line of "short" contracts on "long" sellers' option. Pacific Mail went up to 74¾ on the way to 80, the "bulls" in that stock say it will reach. sales being heavy. Harlem stock declined to 126¾ from 129¾.

THE BUILDING RECORD.

Proposed New Buildings.

The following is a list of new buildings proposed for erection in this City since the last report, and for the week ending Thursday, April 25, 1872. The report is an official one, from plans filed at the office of JAMES M. MACGREGOR, Superintendent of the Department of Buildings:

Elizabeth-street, No. 126, unsafe and cracked front wall; JAMES TALCOTT, owner.

New Sailors' Exchange.

At the dedication of this institution, a statement was made in the opening address which must necessarily mislead the public if not corrected. The statement was that there are no places outside of their boarding-houses where seamen can resort for proper and elevating purposes, unless it be the churches and bethels, implying, of course, that these places are visited for religious worship only. There are no less than six free reading-rooms for seamen, in the immediate vicinity of this new Exchange building—a large and commodious one at the Sailors' Home, directly opposite; another in Pike-street, under the auspices of the Episcopal Mission for Seamen; another at the Church of the Sea and Land, corner of Market and Henry streets; another at the Baptists' Temple, corner of Oliver and Henry streets, and three under the auspices of the New-York Port Society; one at the church, corner of Madison and Catharine streets, another at the Mission, corner of Water and Dover streets, and the third at No. 275 West-street.

The rooms at the corner of Madison and Catharine streets are open daily from 8½ A. M. to 9½ P. M. Here are standing desks with files

FLOUR AND MEAL—State and Western Flour has been in fair request, but the reduced views of buyers and firmer views of holders have been against free movements. Sales have been made since our last of 9,500 bbls., all told, including inferior to very choice superfine, at $5@5 20 for inferior to very choice State, $5 10@5 20 for inferior to very good Extra State at $5 20@5 40; very good to choice at $5 40@5 90; poor to very good shipping Extra Western at $5 20@5 30; poor to good shipping brands round-hoop Extra Ohio at $5 40@5 60; trade brands do. at $5 65@6 90. Southern Flour has been in fair demand and stronger in prices. Sales have been reported since our last of 750 bbls. at $5 20@5 80 for ordinary to very good Extra, and $6@6 12 for fancy and very choice Extra. Canada Flour continues in good demand within the range of from $5 80@5 80 for Extra. Rye Flour has been in fair request at from $4 10@5 10 ₱ bbl.; sales, 200 bbls. Corn-meal continues in fair demand; sales of 200 bbls. at $3 10@3 30 for Western, $3 70@3 80 for Jersey, and $3 80@4 for Brandywine; sales, 450 bbls.

GRAIN—Wheat has been in quite brisk request for shipment and milling, at firmer prices, rise of 1c. on a bushel, with sales reported since our last of 372,000 bushels, including No. 1 Milwaukee Spring at $1 at 6 in store; No. 2 Milwaukee Spring at $1 07@1 07½ in store, and $1 at 6 in store and afloat; No. 1 Chicago and North-west Spring at $1 03@1 03½ in store and afloat; White Western at $1 03@1 03½ in store and afloat, in bond, and $1 07 delivered; Amber Western at $1 06@1 06½ in store, and $1 07 delivered; Red Western at $1 02@1 02½ in store and afloat, closing strong and buoyant. The bulk of the business in No. 2 Spring at $1 03@1 03½ in store and afloat. Corn has been in lively demand for export as well as for home-trade purposes, and has been quoted up again fully 1 cent a bushel, closing buoyantly. Sales have been reported since our last of 1,780,000 bushels (part for forward delivery) at 75c.@76c. for New-York State (mostly at 75c. for shipping lots; 75c.@75¾c. for prime old do., in store; 76c. for Choice do., delivered; 76c.@77c. for White Western and Southern; 74c.@75c. for New Mixed Western; No. 3 Chicago at 68½c. for do. first half of May; and 70c.@77c. for White Western and Southern. Rye has been in good request and quoted firmer, with sales reported of 12,000 bushels, chiefly at 95c.@96c. for State, closing firmly with 95c. reported bid for prime in store. Barley and Barley-malt dull at old figures. Oats have been in limited demand and irregular in price, Mixed Western closing nearly 1c. higher, while White Western rather more firmness. Sales have been reported since our last of 35,000 bushels at 52c.@53½c. for Mixed Western, afloat; 53c. for do. in store; 53c. for Mixed State, afloat; 54½c.@55½c. for White Western, the latter for choice.

GUNNY BAGS AND BAGGING—Dull, but steady; 200 rolls Domestic Cloth sold at 14¼c. ₱ lb.

HEMP—Has been quiet; 5,000 bales Jute Butts sold at 2¼c.@3c., gold, ₱ lb.

HOPS—Have been inactive yet quoted firm, particularly for the better grades, which have been quite scarce. We quote crop of 1871 at 32c.@37c.; the latter for extra choice crop of 1870. Sales of the lesser growths at 8c.@20c.; foreign at 60c.@75c. Mr. Ernest Wells reports receipts at this port of 184 bales domestic, and imports of 19 bales foreign, for the week.

METALS—Ingot Copper quiet, with 250,000 lbs. sold at 42c.@44c., the inside price for outside lots. Scotch Pig-iron has been very dull. The few lots held have been offered at $20 ₱ ton in bond, but in absence of sales, it is impossible to give any further prices. There is considerable stock on the way, but no price is named. In American Pig-iron a few outside lots have been pressed on the market and lower prices obtained. For future delivery there is a firm feeling. Sales embrace 240 tons No. 1 and 150 tons No. 2 on private terms; quoted at $49@$53 for No. 1, and $46@$51 for No. 2, prompt and forward deliveries. New Rails have been in more or less demand at full prices. DAILY, WEEKLY AND SEMI-WEEKLY.

This journal is now thoroughly identified with the greatest political necessity of the hour—uncompromising warfare against all forms of corruption, whether in national or local government. For years past the TIMES has been exposing the demoralizing schemes of self-interested politicians, and its recent warfare upon the Tammany Democracy has been received with universal approval. It has adhered to the pledge given in its original prospectus, more than twenty years ago, that the public should be truly represented, and their interests faithfully guarded through its columns. Its record has been pure and honorable, and the highest aim of its proprietors is to render it more and more worthy of its past history, and of the confidence which the public repose in it. Two out of three of the original proprietors still direct its policy, and guide it on all public questions. They purpose that the TIMES shall continue to keep clear of all narrow and unworthy influences and cliques, and aim to represent the great body of the public, as distinguished from personal factions. It occupies a perfectly independent position, and is free to speak the truth on all subjects and about all men. Its greatly increased circulation throughout the country adds to its power and influence. It will continue to be a faithful exponent of Republican principles, recognizing the claims of American industry in adjusting the sources of revenue; and it will advocate with untiring energy every cause which tends to further the welfare of the people.

A very full summary of news, and many general articles of great interest, are published in the Semi-weekly editions; and in the Weekly edition there is an unabridged report of the proceedings at the Farmers' Club, an excellent summary of political information, and a great variety of matter suitable for family reading.

The NEW-YORK TIMES is pre-eminently a family paper, all objectionable advertisements being rigidly excluded; and it has a constantly increasing circulation among the most respectable classes of the community.

Notices.

We cannot notice anonymous communications. In all cases we require the writer's name and address, not for publication, but as a guarantee of good faith. We cannot under any circumstances return rejected communications, nor can we undertake to preserve manuscripts.

To Advertisers.

☞ For the accommodation of up-town residents, advertisements for insertion in the TIMES will be received at No. 54 West 23d-st. (junction of Broadway and 6th-av.; No. 206 West 23d-st., opposite Grand Opera-house, and No. 1,241 Broadway, between 30th and 31st sts., at same rates as are charged at office of publication.

☞ The NEW-YORK TIMES has opened a branch office in Brooklyn at No. 44 Court-st. opposite the City Hall, where advertisements will be received until 5 P. M.

☞ Throughout the Presidential canvass, we shall publish fuller reports of meetings and conventions in each State than any other New-York journal. The dispatches we are now receiving from Cincinnati and other points in the West afford examples of the thorough and impartial manner in which our correspondents will perform their work. Very full dispatches will be forwarded by telegraph, supplemented by careful letters. Our design is to place before the public the latest and most trustworthy information, and we have made ample arrangements for that purpose.

The few sincere Republicans who are going to Cincinnati must be charmed with the support which they are receiving from Senator FENTON. His life is calculated to reflect lustre on any "reform" movement, and he very seldom appears in public without some disreputable person tacked to his tail. Yesterday his "organ" in this City made a great fuss over a letter of the worthy Senator to Gen. BURBRIDGE, of Covington, Ky. FENTON writes with great effusion to BURBRIDGE, from whom he has elicited "expressions of personal regard." Why BURBRIDGE admires FENTON, and why FENTON admires BURBRIDGE, will be rendered clear by the following extract from a report of Gen. HOWARD, dated Jan. 9, 1872:

> In the State of Kentucky frauds in the payment of bounties have been charged, and I have recommended in a communication to the Secretary of War, Jan. 4, 1871, the arrest and trial of Lieut. GRAHAM and Z. C. Burbridge. Should the charges be sustained, the estimated amount involved is about $5,000, but it is hoped that there will be no loss to the Government. These allegations of fraud came to my knowledge in the Summer of 1871, and I took measures immediately for their investigation.
> Very respectfully your obedient servant,
> O. O. HOWARD, Brigadier-General U. S. A.

The above extract is a piece of news not yet published in FENTON'S organ.

It seems that there is such a scarcity of Republicans who are willing to go to Cincinnati, even with free tickets, that the tickets are being offered to Democrats. BOSS MANIERRE'S police are, as we hear from various parts of the City, engaged in distributing the free tickets. Among others, name MANIERRE'S special pet, Capt. BURDEN, who is offering free tickets to Cincinnati to life-long Democrats. It seems that GREELEY leads not only a free-trade but a free-ride party. This is more appropriate than it might seem at first blush. The men who go to Cincinnati from this City are chiefly those whose life-long business has been free trade with Tammany, and whose normal condition is that of "dead heads."

An effort was made in the House of Representatives yesterday to fix the date of adjournment, May 20. It failed, as we believe it should. Much of the most important work of the session, which cannot be passed by, remains undone. Only one appropriation bill has become a law; the revenue bills are yet all at sea, and the routine work of both Houses is much in arrears. It is easy to get up a cry for early adjournment, but Congress is elected to do all its work, and to do it as well as possible; and it should take time to do it. It cannot be denied, however, that the delay over the tariff bills is tedious and inexcusable. It will be noted that the proposition to meet at 11 instead of 12, in order to expedite this business, met with a purely partisan objection from Mr. COX, Democrat, of this State.

Is Senator FENTON going to Cincinnati? If he does not, will he support the candidates there nominated? No one knows, not even the Senator himself. He writes to a correspondent in Covington, Ky.: "I cannot promise to be with you on the 30th," which would imply that he "cannot promise to be across the river in Cincinnati on the 1st of May." To another correspondent he says:

> "Of course, everything depends upon the action there. I assume it will be patriotic and wise; if not, we are not bound to support it."

And he adds, "Go, my friend," but he does not say he will go himself. Mr. FENTON is too sly a fox to go into a hole where there may be a trap, until he has induced some esteemed friend to "go" first and find out.

The Tribune sneers at the free "Government" in Kentucky, where white laborers can drive negro competitors from their homes with powder and ball. Does it not perceive that this is precisely the kind of free government the unreconstructed slave-drivers of the South would strive to set up in every Southern State, if a coalition of "Liberals" and Democrats should grant universal amnesty as "a right," repeal all legislation for repressing the Ku-klux, and practically reverse the judgment given in the last Presidential election on the question of the civil and political rights of the negroes in the late rebel States?

"Draw Me Out of That Crowd."

Mr. DAVID A. WELLS is a most excellent statistician, and a man to whose independence and fidelity to his convictions this country owes a great deal; but he is not an expert in the ways of Cincinnati politicians. If he had been, he would not have proposed to Mr. CHARLES FRANCIS ADAMS to select some one to represent him in the Cincinnati Convention. Mr. TRUMBULL, or that amiable and shrewd old politician, Judge DAVID DAVIS, or even the cantankerous Mr. GREELEY, would have known how "to put themselves in the hands of their friends"—as the political slang is—and would have appreciated the importance of working behind a conventional screen, and avoiding all unnecessary declaration of principles. But Mr. ADAMS is hardly the man to put himself in any one's hands, and if it is proper that he should be spoken for, he is perfectly able and entirely willing to speak for himself.

We do not know how far Mr. WELLS is himself in sympathy with Mr. ADAMS. It may easily be that he is as sick of the prospect at Cincinnati as Mr. ADAMS would be if he were not superior, and therefore indifferent to, the whole movement. It may well be that he desired to show the Convention that the plan of GREELEY, MCCLURE, FENTON and GRATZ BROWN, of making at Cincinnati a ticket and a platform that meant nothing to any one, would only excite the contempt of all intelligent men, and drive away, in advance, the respectable leaders on whom the managers have relied. If it was his design to force upon the Convention the fact that its nondescript composition and absurdly confused aims are bringing it into ridicule among all men of independence and integrity, he has certainly succeeded. He has drawn from the single statesman whom the Cincinnati managers have dared to claim, a letter which does not contain one word of commendation for the movement, does not show a sign of sympathy with its purpose, does not betray a shadow of opposition to the Administration, but which speaks of the whole affair in a tone of lofty contempt. We are not surprised that the politicians who are beginning to get together at Cincinnati, view the letter with signs of dismay, or that so clever an interpreter of the sense of the Democratic Party as the Brooklyn Eagle, declares that the letter "encourages no special enthusiasm for Mr. ADAMS as a Conservative candidate for the Presidency."

Mr. ADAMS' simple declaration that he does not want the nomination, and his spirited rebuke of the manner in which the whole question is being treated, afford another proof—if any were needed—that he is of an entirely different species from the office-seeking hacks who are seeking to traffic with him. He sees very plainly that the tricksters will undertake to secure their ends through him, and to require that he be "negotiated for." In that case he instructs Mr. WELLS, "you will be so kind as to draw me out of that crowd."

Nor does he see in what has thus far been done, the slightest reason to suppose that the Convention will rise above the low level of pretentious hypocrisy it has occupied from the outset. Mr. WELLS, in the letter which Mr. ADAMS "frankly answers," evidently must have asked him what he thought of the Jefferson City resolutions. Those, we take it, were referred to by Mr. ADAMS, when he speaks of what he "understands to be the declaration of principles." Mr. WELLS himself had signed a call which rather gushingly declared that its signers "observed with pleasure" that those resolutions "set forth every principle for which the Republican Party has contended." Mr. ADAMS has observed that they contain nothing which any honest Democrat would not accept, and dismisses them to the limbo of political commonplaces, with the remark, "Indeed I should wonder at any one who denied them." This is severe on the ambitious platform over which Mr. TRUMBULL wasted so many precious hours of public time in the Senate, and which, according to Mr. SCHURZ and the Tribune, is the very gospel of progress and reform.

But Mr. ADAMS does not stop here. He cannot deny himself a quiet but stinging sneer at the Cincinnati managers, whose public life is a direct contradiction to every pretense of reform. "The difficulty," he remarks, "is not in the professions; it lies everywhere in the manner in which they are carried into practice." It is easy to imagine the picture Mr. ADAMS had in his mind's eye when he penned these words. Glancing down the "Liberal" declaration, he found at its very head a resolution in favor of a purely revenue tariff, "involving no increase in the price of domestic products," and he imagined the "difficulty in the application" of this profession at the hands of HORACE GREELEY or ANDY CURTIN. He found next a denunciation of "the shameless abuse of public patronage for the control of conventions and elections," and he recalled the bargaining that made FRANK BLAIR a United States Senator, and the repeated bullying of Gen. GRANT for patronage by ALDOR MCCLURE, on the ground of the necessity of carrying Pennsylvania, and the long record of alternate higgling and truculency in regard to offices which Senator FENTON has made at Washington.

He probably remembered that "local self-government" would be declaimed about at Cincinnati by Mr. TRUMBULL, who was the author of the only bill asserting the authority of Congress over the internal affairs of the States, which has ever been declared unconstitutional by the Supreme Court; that "profound reconciliation" would be preached by Mr. GREELEY, who is willing to recall JEFFERSON DAVIS to the United States Senate while DAVIS yet declares himself an utterly unreconciled Secessionist; and Mr. ADAMS may also have remembered that the "purification of the Republican Party" would be zealously promised by the wire-pullers, who have done more than any other class to prostitute the party to selfish and corrupt purposes. No wonder he thought "the difficulty is not in the professions; it lies, everywhere, in the application of them"—no wonder that he should have indicated an almost certain contingency, in which he requested his friend "to draw him out of that crowd." The bolters say that this letter has done Mr. ADAMS "no good." It will, however, increase the respect with which he is generally regarded.

The Streets Once More.

It is perfectly clear that nothing in the way of improving the condition of our streets is to be expected from Contractor BROWN. That person's interest in the matter ceases when he receives his pay. There is no argument which has any force to induce him to do his duty. Honesty is not, to his mind, a policy which pays as well as does the flagrant neglect of duty and the open breach of contract; and therefore, when urged to act like an honest man, he simply maintains a dogged silence, and draws his pay as usual. No reproaches have any weight with a person who is ignorant of the meaning of an honorable obligation, and is too shameless to heed the unanimous reprobation of an indignant community. He cannot be hired, coaxed, or shamed into honesty and common decency, and it is folly to look for any voluntary amendment in such a creature.

We are suffering today more keenly than for months past from the criminal neglect of BROWN. The mud which he permitted to accumulate in the streets during the entire Winter has now become dried under the warm sun of the last few days, and in the shape of dust everywhere fills the air. The poultice pavements laid last year by the Ring have also been ground into powder, to add their countless motes of tar and petroleum to the dust-cloud that hangs like a pall over the City. The unwarrantable liberties which builders are permitted to take in leaving piles of mud, brick-dust and lime in the streets have added to the plague of dust, until it is now dangerous to health and subversive of all cleanliness and comfort. The dust invades houses, and ruins costly furniture. It fills the eyes of pedestrians, and sows the seed of contagious diseases, in addition to the lung, throat and eye disorders which it originates. In no other community would such a state of things be tolerated for a moment. That business men should quietly submit to the foulness of Nassau-street, which has not been swept since last Summer; that the wealthier classes should make no effective remonstrance against the dirt of Fifth-avenue, and the wretched condition of its pavement, which renders the only carriage avenue to the Central Park dangerous in the day-time and impassable at night—are nearly as astounding as is the impudence and rascality of Contractor BROWN.

That person imitates the prosperous TWEED in brutally demanding of the people whom he has wronged—"what they are going to do about it?" One thing they can do, if Mr. ANDREW H. GREEN will have the boldness to act in their behalf. This fellow BROWN receives his dishonest pay for duties which he does not perform, from the Controller. Let Mr. GREEN take the responsibility of refusing to pay his bills any longer, and let the Board of Health at once employ a sufficient force to clean the streets. The entire community would unanimously sustain both the Controller and the Board in such action. Our streets would then be put in a decent condition, and not only the plague of dust be removed, but the City probably saved from the epidemic which will surely visit us this Summer unless the streets cease to be a hot-bed of disease. From BROWN there is nothing to be hoped. Let Mr. GREEN, then, rid us of him by the simple expedient of withholding his pay. He will seek some other dishonest and shameful occupation, and the City will be rid of a rogue more mercenary and more deaf to all appeals of honesty, honor, and decency, than was TWEED himself.

Superintendent Kelso.

Lest by any possible chance there may be a disposition to retain JAMES J. KELSO as Superintendent of Police under the new charter, we propose to present a few reasons why such a misfortune should be spared the citizens of New-York. In the first place, KELSO was appointed to his present position through the influence of his brother-in-law, CORNELIUS CONSON, ex-banker, in Westchester County, Ex-President of the New-York Printing Company, Ex-Chief of the Bureau of Elections, and ex-tool of WILLIAM M. TWEED in general. Before the removal of Capt. JOHN YOUNG, he was a detective in the Department. He was then made Captain of Detectives, and subsequently, upon the death of JOHN JOURDAN, he was promoted to the office which he has since filled in such an unsatisfactory manner. Early in his career, the line of conduct he pursued proved how thoroughly he was controlled by the "Ring," and how desirous he was of serving his masters faithfully. At the same time, to preserve appearances, doubtless by the advice of SWEENY, he created considerable consternation among the "Keno" men by arresting those of their number who were entirely destitute of friends in Tammany Hall. This dodge served for a while to hide his shortcomings in other respects; but his "game" was soon seen through when he made no movement to arrest the owners of the gilded gambling saloons on Broadway;—not even after our reporters had placed a complete list before him, and reprinted the law on gambling for his especial benefit.

It was then clearly shown that the gamblers were protected by the "Ring" and that KELSO would not be permitted to give them any trouble. After the exposure of the "Ring," and the downfall of TWEED, there was a chance for KELSO to clear his skirts of the gang who had hitherto controlled him. Did he do this? Nothing of the sort. He still continued to take his orders from TWEED, and to wait upon him "sometimes" at the Metropolitan Hotel, room No. 112. That he adopted this course is proved by his own testimony in the suit of GORDON against GOULD. Without any color of authority, he ordered the arrest of Mr. GORDON, because it had been intimated to him that such was the desire of TWEED. In his affidavit he says: "On the 23d of March, 1873, I was in the Metropolitan Hotel at dinner. Upon leaving the dining-hall between 1 and 2 o'clock, I was accosted by Officer KIRBY, one of the Police force detailed at the hotel. He told me that I was wanted up-stairs. He had, on previous occasions, given me somewhat similar intimations, and I understood that I was wanted at room No. 112, where I sometimes visit. As I was going up to this room I met WILLIAM BELDEN and Judge SHANLEY, of the Essex Market Police Court; either one or other of them—I am not certain which—in the presence and hearing of the other, told me that they wanted to make an arrest of a man stopping at the hotel, and wanted an officer, and asked me if I would send for one; I told them there was no necessity of doing so, and said, here is an officer, referring to KIRBY, detailed to the house; KIRBY had accompanied me upstairs; I said to KIRBY, these men want a man arrested here; you arrest him." Now if KELSO had any regard for public opinion, he would have kept far enough away from the Metropolitan Hotel, but instead of so doing he made a point of being there whenever he was needed to do a dirty job for a man, who is at this moment under several indictments for robbing the public. A few days ago, when KELSO was called upon by a reporter for his opinion of the new charter, he declared that he was simply a policeman, and had nothing whatever to do with politics. If he had acted upon this principle, how much better it would have been for the City since his advent to power. KELSO, however, has scarcely been out of place as the executive officer of a Board composed of such men as HANK SMITH, "Ancillary" BAKER, and BEN MANIERRE; and perhaps we have reason to be thankful that there is—even at this late day—a prospect of the speedy riddance of the entire gang.

A Nuisance of the Day.

New-York, by virtue of its situation, offers to the seeker for pure air and healthful recreation opportunities to be found no where else. We have a river on each side of the City, which ought to be the highway of travel between the two extremities of the City. We have a superb bay, upon which pleasure parties might daily seek the exhilarating breezes of the ocean. We have the shady lawns and thickets of the Central Park, and the countless sylvan retreats on the further side of each river, where a day in the country could be quietly and pleasantly spent. All these are within our reach, but they are for the most part practically useless. Over them all is the trail of that particularly undesirable reptile, the New-York rough.

It is true, that the general distrust of steam-boat boilers has much to do in deterring people from venturing on the rivers and the bay. Still, were the steam-boats above reproach in point of soundness of hull and safety of boiler, they would still be infested by the rough. No excursion steam-boat leaves this City without its freight of shoulder-hitters, and the sort of female congenial to them. These persons insult the decent passengers either openly or directly, or, to an extent hardly less endurable, by their drunkenness and their obscene conversation. The rough has also an especial fondness for invading every pleasant and otherwise quiet rural retreat within easy distance of the City. He converts Hoboken and Staten Island into a pandemonium on Sundays, and is always liable to be met with in force at either locality on any other day of the week. Coney Island, which ought to be our most popular bathing-place, since it is the nearest sea-beach within reach, is wholly given over to the rough, and he has also, to a great extent, made the once fashionable Rockaway his own. For a long time he was kept out of the Central Park, but lastly he has discovered that admirable opportunities for insulting ladies and servant-maids are offered by the laziness of policemen, and the numerous facilities for escape found in the Park. It is now disagreeable for women to enter the Park in the daytime unaccompanied by men, and thus once unexceptionable pleasure-ground is in a fair way of becoming another Elysian Fields—as disorderly and as devoid of respectable visitors as is the latter notorious place. For this, fortunately, there is a remedy. In Col. STEBBINS we have a man who is not afraid of losing the votes of the rough; and it is only necessary to call his attention to the fact that the Park is being monopolized by disreputable characters, to make it certain that henceforth the rough will find its air no longer healthful. The Park Police should be instructed to keep a sharp lookout for the vagabonds who go there merely to follow nurse-maids, and to insult every decent woman by their abominable behavior.

And here we have precisely the remedy which may yet save the rivers, the bay, and the shore woodlands, from the rough who now dominates them. If steam-boat captains would have the pluck to employ the Police to prevent any disreputable person from entering their boats, in order to convert what might be a pleasant excursion into a scene of riot and debauchery, the baffled rough would be forced to confine himself to the slums where he belongs. This would not be a movement in behalf of the rich against the poor; but an effort to protect the honest, orderly working men and their families against the thieves and blackguards. It is especially in behalf of the working people, who ought to be able to breathe pure air in peace and comfort, that the rough should be suppressed. Let him be made to understand that he is not to be permitted to sully the pleasures of decent people, and we shall soon find that the natural advantages for health and relaxation offered by the suburbs and waters of New-York will no longer be neglected.

Suppressing News.

The Tribune is not an "organ," but a "newspaper"—so it says. Nevertheless, it makes a daily practice of suppressing all the news which is in any way offensive to the Cincinnati bolters. The following are a few "items" which it has thus dishonestly burked:

1. The regular Republican call for the Philadelphia Convention.
2. The call for the New-York State Convention.
3. Gov. OGLEBY'S letter.
4. Gov. NEWELL'S letter, contradicting its own slander.
5. Hon. ALEXANDER H. RICE'S letter.
6. Report on Superintendent MILLER'S case.

—Perhaps, also, as the Tribune is in the mood to boast of its "impartiality" in publishing matters of general interest, it could manage to find room for one or other of Mr. DAVID A. WELLS' interesting and valuable reports? These reports have been systematically suppressed by the Tribune, which nevertheless attacked Mr. DAVID A. WELLS on account of them. It was afraid to let its readers hear Mr. WELLS' side of the story. Perhaps this was because the Professor had not got his "Code of Journalism" quite ready—but now that Mr. GREELEY is walking arm in arm to Cincinnati with Mr. DAVID A. WELLS, surely he could be induced to give him a fair show?

At any rate, has a Republican newspaper a fair right to suppress announcements of so much importance as the regular Republican call to the Philadelphia Convention, and the regular call for the State Convention?

Is this acting fairly—or is it not, rather, conduct almost as depraved as that which even an "organ" could be guilty of?

MINOR TOPICS.

Our readers will bear witness that we have done our utmost to expose corruption at Albany this session—the severity of our strictures having sometimes drawn down upon us the remonstrances of some whom we generally regard as our friends. As an example of the utter impossibility of getting anything like fair play from "critics," we may quote the following, which the Express published last evening:

> "Members are whitewashed with impunity, and although Col. HAWKINS resigns, he will not dare, under the discipline of the party whip, to reveal the iniquities of the Ring. The NEW-YORK TIMES, the recognized leader of the party in power in Albany, does not expose them."

Now, will this writer, instead of indulging in unjust reflections, enable us to expose the guilty members, and thus put our earnestness in the cause to a fair test? We candidly confess that at this moment we have no proofs of the corruption of any individual member—or we would "expose" him soon enough. Will the writer above quoted help us to these proofs? Surely it is not unreasonable to ask that, before he begins abusing us for not doing a duty we are only too eager to discharge. If he will call at this office, or write to us, we undertake to publish, in the most conspicuous manner, any facts he may have in his possession.

An article which we quote from the Brooklyn Eagle shows that the Democrats would be by no means united on the question of supporting Mr. CHARLES FRANCIS ADAMS for the Presidency. We regard the Eagle as a much sounder exponent of Democratic opinion than the World; it is not tricky; it does not take up candidates merely to throw them overboard; it does not "sell out" its party at the last moment. Mr. ADAMS is far too sagacious a man to be used by the World for a temporary purpose, and then flung aside. Moreover, we do not believe that the bolters at Cincinnati would regard Mr. ADAMS as a suitable man for them. But we shall see next week.

The Legislature has changed the date of the charter election to Friday, May 31. As the Election law makes the day a legal holiday, the selection will probably be regarded, in business circles, as somewhat inconvenient. It has this obvious recommendation, however: Nobody will be disfranchised now that the day of election has been fixed at a sufficient interval from pay-time to allow the acquired three days' residence to be spent in the district from which new voters will be required to vote by officials.

Tax-payers must now be prepared for the rate of two and three-quarters per cent as the measure of the taxation of the year. Official economy and increase in the valuation of property may render the rate less, and there is this further consolation, that we may sanely congratulate ourselves on the prospect that the year's income will prove sufficient for the year's expenditure. At least, if this desirable result is not attained, the citizens of New-York will have only themselves to blame.

The return of Mr. REDMOND, for Waxford, is, in some respects, a stronger indication of the strength of the Home Rule movement than any primary election. The people of Waxford are a quiet, affluent, law-abiding race, composing the most prosperous agricultural population in the country. They are principally Catholics, and the land is divided among Whigs and Tories uniformly, pretty equally opposed to Home Rule. This election furnishes most forcible evidence of the decline of priestly and landlord power in Ireland.

Charles—Mary of Sorrows—John—Isidore—Joseph—Francis—Quirinus—Antony—Michael—Gabriel—Raphael is the euphonious name of the young man usually known as the Duke of MADRID, and who is at present making some noise in the world under the title of CHARLES VII. to his adherents, and DON CARLOS to the world at large. The most that the current records of the time know of this latest Spanish pretender is, that he was born on March 30, 1848, and that he was married on Feb. 4, 1867, to a daughter of the EX-DUCAL and affiliated Bourbon house of PARMA. Perhaps it should be added that this further fact is known, that the Duke and Duchess of MADRID have a daughter who appears to have one of the longest names on record. Here is the monstrous compound: Blanche of Castille—Mary of the Conception—Theresa—Francisca of Assisi—Margaret—Joanna—Beatrice—Charlotte—Louisa—Fernanda—Adelgonda—Elvira—Ildefonsa—Regina—Josepha—Michaela—Gabriela—Raphaela. A more atrocious jumble of historical personages, patron saints and archangels could hardly be imagined.

AMUSEMENTS.

Musical.

ITALIAN OPERA.

"William Tell" was repeated at the Academy of Music last evening. Today "Martha" will be sung, and Tuesday the farewell representation of the series will take place.

SIGNOR AGRAMONTE'S ENTERTAINMENT.

The entertainment tendered to Signor AGRAMONTE at the Union League Theatre, on Thursday evening, was without question the finest amateur performance of the season. One act of "Ernani" and one act of "L'Ombre" were recited, and a brief concert, as an intermezzo, afforded opportunities for the execution of several solos. In VERDI'S opera, Mr. HENRY STANFIELD, the fortunate possessor of a tenor voice of exceeding sweetness, which he uses not only with skill, but with a taste and power of expression most rare, even among artists, was Ernani; Miss KATIE SMITH, a daughter of Mr. MARK SMITH, and, vocally, a very gifted young lady, was Elvira, and Señor F. P. MARTINEZ was Don Ruy Gomez de Silva. The musical mise en scène following included the trio from "Guglielmo Tell," sung, with remarkable precision and effect, by Messrs. SHELTON and BERGER and Signor GARIBALDI; ARDITI'S "La Spia," an eloquent romanza, to which no one can give greater significance than Mr. STANFIELD, when accompanied by a more sympathetic orchestra than was at his disposal on the occasion we write of; a florid air from "L'Ombre," delivered with ease and surety by Mrs. MUSGRAVE; "Salve Dimora," nicely sung by Mr. W. S. LEGGAT, who, however, still believes himself called upon to beautify Mr. GOUNOD'S composition; "Oh! quel Giorno!" by Miss ANNA E. BULKLEY, and DONIZETTI'S "Rataplan," done by a double quartet. Part third of the affair consisted of the first act of FLOTOW'S newest opera. The long and difficult tasks set to Miss A. CHANTRAND, Mrs. J. S. MACKENZIE, Dr. GERLACH-DURANT and Señor MARTINEZ, found all the performers equal to their importance; and the bright, elaborate numbers of the score, the interesting dialogue and the impressive action of the opera had an exposition really worthy of being submitted to the approval of the public at large. The performance was directed by Signor AGRAMONTE.

CURIOSITIES OF CRITICISM.

The curiosities of criticism receive additions almost daily. The extract following, from yesterday's issue of an evening contemporary, is the freshest at hand:

> "EDWIN BOOTH, with a passably good cast, played the Fool as only he can play it, last night, in the theatre which carries his name—the part Bertuccio, and there begins and ends the recital of this drama. (!) Many conscientious and good actors aided to produce the real sense of sympathy by their most careful following of the text, and the good giving forth of talent, latent sometimes, which this theatre singularly seems to develop. The scenery was more than respectable, but did not come up to the point of the recent Shakespearean revivals."

The success of the operatic season, to use the customary language, is very pleasing to those persons who watch the progress of men and women. The one from the club, and in the case of the gentler sex, the gossiping tea party, which is almost, morally as bad, have found a source of most pure and happy nature. The divine art has also extremely well paid the most excellent efforts that have been made, since, as we know, the receipts have been at the Academy $9,000 a night."

OBITUARY.

Death of Col. Geo. C. Hall, of Brooklyn.

Col. GEORGE C. HALL, one of the leading citizens of Brooklyn, died yesterday, at his residence, on Clinton-avenue, after a brief illness, in the forty-fifth year of his age. He was taken ill on Tuesday, while driving in the country, and being conveyed to his home the next morning, sank rapidly. Late on Wednesday night he was seized with convulsions, the result of a chronic kidney affection, which exhausted all his remaining strength. Mr. HALL was a native of Brattleboro, Vt., where he was born Feb. 17, 1826. He entered into business in Boston in 1844, and in 1853 established himself in the white lead business in New-York. In 1862 he was appointed purchasing agent of the Erie Railroad, where, through his great executive capacity, he speedily became a necessity. He was appointed a director of the Company, and figured prominently in the late coup d'état. Col. HALL was deeply interested in many of the improvements designed to increase the prosperity of Brooklyn, though he refrained from active participation in political affairs. He was the projector of the Prospect Park Fair Grounds, in the affairs of which he took a warm interest. He also originally suggested the ambulance system now in operation in Brooklyn. He leaves his family in comfortable pecuniary circumstances.

Steam Ahoy—Preparations for His Reception.

Mr. WM. STEINWAY has received a letter from FRANZ ABT, from which it appears that the eminent German composer left Bremen on the 20th inst., on the steamer Rhein, and may be expected to arrive in this City on Thursday or Friday next. He will be received upon his arrival by the officers of the Saengerbund. The Liederkranz Society, of which he is an honorary member, will give a concert for his benefit at Steinway Hall, on Sunday, the 12th prox., which which will be conducted by Mr. ABT in person. The Arion will honor his visit with a banquet. The arrangements for a torchlight procession and serenade by the Saengerbund Societies have been completed, and the musical part of the programme will be rehearsed by them at the Germania Assembly Rooms to-morrow. The programme consists of VERDI'S overture to "Nabucodonosor," and four of ABT'S compositions, viz.: "Wanderlied," "Frühlingsfahrt," "Frühlingsgruss" and "Sängerfahrt."

Woman Suffrage.

Mrs. C. Lozier and Mrs. Blake on Marriage and the Family the Basis of Society.

A large audience assembled at the Cooper Institute last evening, to consider the question of "Marriage and the family the basis of society and the foundation of the claim of equal suffrage." Mrs. CLEMENCE S. LOZIER, M. D., occupied the chair.

In explaining the purpose of the meeting, Mrs. LOZIER said that as the present time all notions, creeds and principles were put into the scale and weighed, and if found wanting were renounced. The relation between man and woman as a consequence of the spirit of progress and enlightenment was now sadly becoming a national issue, as affecting questions vital to the existence of the nation itself. She boldly maintained that the claim of this country to universal freedom, to republicanism, was false and untrue, while half the population, comprising much of its best element, was completely disenfranchised. There were those in the community who excelled in it would not themselves participate in politics, and who shuddered at the idea that their female relations should defile themselves with its touch. Were they to leave the administration of the affairs of their country to the ignorant and unenlightened, who were only struggling for place, power and money? Rather was it not their duty to stem the torrent of political corruption by bringing to the rescue all the moral force of the nation? The women of this country were unconscionably taxed; they were subjected to all the disadvantages, without the privileges, of men, and in great matters, such as the education of their children, they were to have no hand in the selection of their teachers. No one of intelligence would deny that in social life woman's influence was productive of the most beneficial results, and the application of those influences to the political sphere she knew would create a corresponding effect. Women in this country were fast making their mark in literature; they had given evidence of extraordinary power; and the combination of the good in the characters of both sexes was to result in that perfect form of republican government which up to this only existed in idea, but not in reality. She claimed that men, by reason of their want of acquaintance with the characters and constitutions of women, were not adapted to legislate for them, and universal suffrage to all was the only remedy for the alleviation of the past grievances of which they all complained. [Applause.]

Mrs. LILLIE D. BLAKE proposed the following preamble and resolution:

> Whereas, Marriage and the family are the basis of society; and
>
> Whereas, Women and men have in the family an equal place, though different duties; therefore,
> Resolved, That in the State, also, women should have a recognized place and voice, and that the time has come when the wisdom that is bound up with motherly and tenderness, as well as the wisdom that proceeds from force and reflection, are required to perfect our Government.

In moving the resolution, Mrs. BLAKE said that the most sacred feelings of the heart were those that centred around the home and the family. They were associated with the memories of youth, with the devotion of the lover, with the instinct of marriage planted by God in the human heart for the highest and purest purposes, and with the calm and happy blessings that surround true parents. Philosophers of a certain school might claim that, because marriage was sometimes broken, universal license ought to prevail. Away with such an idea. Carried out, it would ruin at once all that was good in human society. The moral nature was the highest one, and we should do everything to strengthen it. However much there may be of wickedness in the world around us, we should steadfastly adhere to the right, [applause,] and prove eternally constant to the light of love that shone from the face of the companion of our home. [Applause.] In the realization of a happy home there was a necessity for perfect equality among both, and the comfort thus created, if directed to politics, could not be other wise than of the greatest advantage to the nation. She asserted that the women of the country, in the matter of political offices, were not treated equally with men. They thus naturally desired political equality as the means of restoring their rights, but they repudiated with indignation the charge that enfranchisement which elevates man would degrade woman. [Applause.] Give them equality at the ballot-box and the entire community would be benefited.

The resolutions were then put and adopted.

Mrs. SARAH HOWE MORRIS, M. D., was the next speaker. She said that every American citizen understood the beauty and love of home, and those who stepped outside it were martyrs to the great cause of human liberty. She looked with compassion on those who presented a dark life, but she regarded them as martyrs and nothing else. She thought that our Wall-street friends by their liveliness had done more good for the cause than they could hope to accomplish, for she hoped to God that all the world would take the lives the professed here would profess or live truly. [Applause.] At this point of the lady's address she was gently interrupted by the presiding officer, and requested not to deal in personalities. In resuming she demanded the right of free speech, and denied any purpose of condemning any one. In sympathizing with those who forgot that she was a mother and a wife, though she did not indorse her manner of living. She concluded by a warm address in support of woman suffrage.

Addresses were also delivered by Dr. MARVIN and Mrs. MCMULLEN, and the meeting terminated.

The Court Stenographers' Pay—A Mandamus to be Issued on Monday if an Appropriation is Not Made.

The case of ROBERT BONYNGE, one of the Court stenographers, against the Board of Audit and Appropriation, came up yesterday in Supreme Court Chambers, before Judge BRADY. The motion before the Court was for a mandamus to compel the Board of Audit and Appropriation to appropriate funds to pay the stenographers of the Courts of Record for four months ending the last of this month.

Mr. J. H. SPRAGUE, who appeared for the Board of Audit, asked for an adjournment, he having received the papers, he said, but two hours before, but assured the

THE TRUE VOICE OF THE PEOPLE.

What is said and Thought About the Baltimore Convention and its "Organs."

When Mr. HORACE GREELEY went out of his way to go bail for JEFF. DAVIS, the TIMES lost a large number of subscribers throughout the country; but we have good reason to know that its loss at that time was almost nothing compared to what it has been since Mr. GREELEY's thirst for fame led him into the ranks of the "soreheads," who are now in full cry for Cincinnati. Nearly every day the post brings to us additional evidence of the general dissatisfaction now evinced by those who once believed him to be head and shoulders above every other man in the country.

A correspondent writing from Westchester County says:

"My father, who has been for the last twelve years a subscriber to the Tribune, and a great admirer of the venerable 'HORACE,' has become so disgusted with his twaddle in relation to GRANT, and his wholesale abuse of the friends of the present Administration generally, that he proposes to drop him like a 'hot potato' and subscribe for the TIMES after the 1st of May. You would be surprised to see how many are following his example in this section of the country. 'Grant man to the front' is the cry."

An indignant veteran of the war of 1812 writes from Lancaster, Coos County, N. H., as follows:

"Inclosed you will find my subscription for your paper. I have taken the Tribune for many years, but when it turned its back upon the best President we have had for fifty years, our connection ceased. I bought for my country in the war of 1812, and at no time since have I had a fondness for traitors."

A correspondent from Hawesville, Ky., under date of April 17, says:

"The course of the TIMES is warmly approved of here. I know several who intend taking the TIMES. We are all for GRANT. Not a solitary Cincinnati Convention Republican in this county. GRANT got 106 votes in this county. HARLAN last August got 234 votes; we will increase that vote forty per centum in November next."

A gentleman with a name which stood high during the revolution, writes from Buckingham, Berks County, Penn., in this vein:

"I inclose herewith check for $61 for sixty-two copies NEW-YORK WEEKLY TIMES. Our Republicans seem to be stronger in their faith since HORACE GREELEY's apostacy, as it formerly required quite an effort to raise fifty subscribers for the Tribune here, whereas the sixty-two for your paper were easily obtained. We want our subscriptions to commence with this week's issue."

A staunch old Republican in Canoga, N. Y., sends $10 through a friend to have the DAILY TIMES forwarded to him for a year. He takes occasion at the same time to remark:

"Mr. W. has been for the last ten years a subscriber to the Tribune; but Mr. GREELEY has seen proper to embark for Cincinnati. Mr. W. will not consent to follow, and this morning orders the Tribune stopped, and wishes the TIMES instead. And so it is with all here."

The following letter from Belgrade, Me., came to us with a request that a specimen copy of the TIMES might be sent:

"We have," said the writer, "in past Presidential campaigns taken a great many numbers of the New-York Tribune; but not a solitary one is taken now, for we have no Republicans in these parts that have any desire to follow GREELEY into an alliance with the corrupt Democracy. Maine, true to her past record, will, in the approaching Presidential election, give GRANT a larger majority than the magnificent one she gave him in 1868. Economy and honesty in the administration of the affairs of the Government are what the great masses of the people most earnestly desire. In GRANT they have it."

A medical practitioner, writing from Mercer, Penn., under date of April 17, says:

"Inclosed please find $1, for which I wish you to send me the paper for one year. * * * As Brother GREELEY is off after other rods, I desire to see how close you can hew to the line. We stand by our colors."

A sturdy old gentleman, who dates his letter from New-Crock, West Va., says:

"You will please find inclosed $6 in money and stamps, for which you will send the WEEKLY TIMES to the following names and addresses. * * * I want you to set the above names down to my credit, as this is only a commencement, for I hope to be able to send you a great many more before GREELEY goes to be President, or any of the soreheaded set."

The following vigorous letter bears the post-mark of Clymer, Chautauqua County, N. Y.:

"Eleven dollars are herewith inclosed for eleven copies of the NEW-YORK WEEKLY TIMES, an increase to my former club of thirteen. If the people demand through the Philadelphia Convention that GRANT and COLFAX shall remain at the helm of State until further and greater reductions are indorsed upon the balance-sheet of our national debt, I allege it as a truism, no Republican will be found kicking against the fiats of the mass thus expressed. Tariffs, tinker them as they will, must be in the end regulated with a view to the needs of our whole country. A canceled national debt will be the 'great adjuster' of trade and commerce in the future."

A young gentleman, who is so elated with the success of his efforts to have no more copies of the Tribune sent to Croton, Delaware County, N. Y., writes beforehand to announce that he is engaged in the pleasant occupation of getting up a club of fifty subscribers for the TIMES:

"Before GREELEY's apostacy," says the writer, "over fifty copies of the Tribune came to this office; now there is not one! We want to get fifty, and as many more as possible for the TIMES, and we want GREELEY to know it, too, when we get them. You see, we are bound to 'push things.'"

A soldier, who fought under Gen. GRANT, sends us quite a lengthy communication from Binghamton, N. Y., to assure us that he and others are working in that neighborhood to have the circulation of the TIMES increased, and that of the Tribune decreased. So far, he says that the Tribune has lost nearly 200 subscribers, and, from present appearances, the number remaining will soon discontinue it also. We are obliged to him for the advice he offers, and beg to assure him that nothing will be left undone to make the SEMI-WEEKLY and WEEKLY TIMES in every way worthy of the increased support they are receiving.

The following letter comes from Chandlerville, Ill.:

"We want a paper that will work with us for the great Republican Party, though it and ourselves are not of the 'ins' so far as Government offices are concerned. We have taken the New-York Tribune for some time, and though we still consider it a good paper, we cannot commend its 'sore-headedness.' Its chief-tain may go bail for rebels, but when he seeks to break the ranks of the party that saved the Government, when he seeks to organize a third party, and thereby elevate the old-style repudiating Democracy, I wish, as an old '56 Republican, to enter protest. The masses are not tired of the party—they do not want a new party, or 'any one to beat GRANT;' but know that the present Administration has done nobly, and though many may prefer COLFAX, or some one (not identified with the Cincinnati movement) else, as their chief, yet all will rally for GRANT, feeling that one who has heretofore proved faithful and good for the people well deserves their suffrages."

A subscriber writing from New-Berlin, N. Y., says:

"Inclosed find $1, for which please place the name of —— —— in our club, and send your weekly paper to this office for one year, and oblige. You now notice ten subscribers that I have obtained for the NEW-YORK TIMES, when three months ago there was none taken at this office. It was all New-York Tribune or nothing with the Republicans here then, but GREELEY is not patronized here now by a single subscriber. Peace to his ashes!"

From FOX, West Va., we have the following:

"I heartily indorse the efforts of the TIMES to keep the Union Republican Party in the ascendancy in this nation, for the reason, if there were no other, but are many, that the identity of this party, and its dominancy, is of absolute necessity for the perpetuity of our system of government. I am getting up a club here for the TIMES. I am a son of the old Granite State, and so is GREELEY, but I condemn his political course."

These are a few of the opinions of our contemporaries upon the same subject:

From the Walden (Orange County) Herald.

Attention is called to the prospectus of the NEW-YORK TIMES, published in this issue. The TIMES is not only acknowledged to be the best newspaper published in New-York, but it is also now regarded as the leading Republican paper of the State, and its efforts in the cause of good government by fearlessly exposing the Tammany thefts last Fall should induce all good Republicans to give it their aid.

From the Houston (Texas) Daily Union.

The NEW-YORK DAILY TIMES, which has for many years been the equal of the New-York Tribune, has now become the leading journal in the United States, and, indeed, in the world; for American journalism, in New-York particularly, is superior to British journalism, the London Times not excepted. The TIMES is not only conducted with the highest intellectual force, in accordance with the most elevated and enlarged principles of culture and taste, and with the utmost liberality, vigor, and enterprise as a newspaper; but it has recently achieved world-wide fame and honor in the successful struggle for the overthrow of the gigantic Tammany Ring, and in the deliverance of the people of that City, of that State, and of the United States from its corruption, oppression, and robberies.

From the Pittsfield (N. Y.) Journal.

The New-York Tribune has obtained its circulation throughout the country by persistently claiming the support of Republicans as an advocate of the party's principles. In this manner Republicans have been prevailed upon to extend the circulation of the Tribune. That paper is now treacherously doing its best to break up the Republican Party, because its editor cannot dictate like an autocrat the party's policy. Such treachery is very much of a piece with that of BENEDICT ARNOLD and ANDY JOHNSON, and the people should no longer support the Tribune. The NEW-YORK TIMES is abundantly qualified to take the place of the Tribune, both as a first-class newspaper and as able exponent of Republican principles. Drop the Tribune as you would a traitor from the ranks.

From the Coos (N. H.) Republican.

The NEW-YORK TIMES has supplanted the Tribune in the leadership of Republican journals. No existing paper has rendered such noble service in exposing thieves and wrong-doers, or in advocating political reform. It is a bold, fearless, but not servile defender of the Administration, and unsparing exposer of politicians and in situations of the scoundrels, entitle it to the gratitude and support of all true Republicans. The reports of its correspondents are remarkable for their fullness and accuracy. We emphatically recommend it to the patronage of Republicans who desire to take an able, candid and reliable paper. The weekly edition is $1 per year.

From the Newark (N. J.) Daily Courier.

The NEW-YORK TIMES is, and by good rights ought to be, the acknowledged leading Republican organ of the country. In contradistinction to which the Tribune asserts that it is not a party organ, for the reason, probably, that it is "played out."

From the Logansport (Ind.) Journal.

The NEW-YORK TIMES is the leading newspaper now published in this country. Its fight with the Tammany Ring and its triumphant victory, the service rendered and the ability displayed in the battle have so increased its circulation and added to its influence that no other New-York journal can pretend to be its rival in the popular favor. To those who desire to take an Eastern weekly newspaper we can cordially commend the TIMES. In agriculture, horticulture, financial and political news, current literature and the markets, it is unsurpassed. Terms for the WEEKLY TIMES, $1 per annum. SEMI-WEEKLY at $2 50 per annum.

From the New-Orleans National Republican.

No Republican paper in the United States is doing greater service than the NEW-YORK TIMES. As an advocate of genuine republicanism, and as a champion of public honesty, it is signal. Before its terrible guns Tammany crumbled to dust, and the men who had stolen millions fled in dismay. To that paper is especially due the great impulse for reform in New-York City. In view of the coming campaign, the TIMES now offers its WEEKLY at $1 a year; its SEMI-WEEKLY at $2 50 a year. We commend it to all our readers as a most valuable paper. In addition to its vast political information are extensive agricultural, horticultural, literary and market departments, each of which has an experienced editor. Radically opposed to the Democratic Party, to which it has long dealt great harm, and to the spurious Cincinnati movement of mal-contents, its candidate for renomination is ULYSSES S. GRANT.

From the Donaldsonville (La.) Leader.

If there is any one that wishes to subscribe for a real live and good paper—a paper that treats all subjects in an honest and straightforward manner, we would advise them to take the NEW-YORK TIMES. As the campaign is now about to commence for President, is usual for many who wish to keep themselves well posted to take some New-York journal that is reliable, in order that they can keep themselves posted. Before its guns Tammany crumbled to dust, and the men who had stolen millions fled in terror. To that paper is especially due the great impulse for reform in New-York City. In view of the approaching campaign, the TIMES now offers its WEEKLY at $1 a year; SEMI-WEEKLY at $2 50 a year. In addition to its vast political information, are extensive agricultural, horticultural and literary departments, each of which has an able editor. We repeat, if you want a good paper send for the NEW-YORK TIMES.

From the Derby (Conn.) Transcript.

We take unfeigned pleasure, now and always, in commending this, which we have ever deemed a most sterling paper. We were acquainted with Mr. RAYMOND before he thought of it, far back in the Courier & Enquirer under Col. WEBB; we knew his indomitable pluck and almost marvelous capacity for labor, and when the TIMES first broke ground, all could see the nerve and variety of the man at the head of it. RAYMOND, and his paper, were accused of "being on the fence"—without one jot of truth. He was a man of a cast of mind that always made decisions; he was, in the true sense, judicial; he knew all truth lies between the extremes; and hence while his convictions were prompt and decided, he was no partisan, and could not be on any subject, unless you made him over again. When he died, the TIMES fell off somewhat in force, method and repute; but it has finally found and recovered itself, and the day it struck its first hard blow at Tammany, no man can deny its great power or its well-deserved and proud position before the country. In its late struggle with GREELEY—a little too personal and bitter—it is yet victor, through the latter's folly and its own discretion. It has done, is doing and will do a brave work, nor lessen its high repute. Those throughout the land wishing a brave journal, sometimes rough, yet true, full of interest and the best kind of enterprise, will read it. It rides few hobbies, and its contempt for those who do, though a little sub acid in flavor, is yet thoroughly honest and honorable.

From the Daily Herald, Chattanooga, Tenn.

HORACE GREELEY has the reputation of a self-willed man, and thus very justly too. The old philosopher is something like a wild ox in a china-shop. He horns and plunges around regardless of consequences. It matters not whether he damages himself, his friends or his enemies, the world burns and knows. This he considers his prerogative, which he will not forego under any consideration. Sometimes Mr. GREELEY's crotchets work large pecuniary loss to his publishers. His signing of JEFF. DAVIS' bail bond brought a loss of several thousand dollars upon a firm in Connecticut who were publishers of his book entitled "Great American Conflict." Agents throughout the Northern States in particular were having immense sales, but Mr. GREELEY, with a stroke of his pen, brought things to a stand-still. The books would not go. The Tribune also suffered considerably in a loss of subscribers. Mr. GREELEY's last indirect onslaught upon his publishers has been his Liberal Reform movement, and the Tribune Association are the losers. Hundreds and thousands of subscribers throughout the country are dropping Mr. GREELEY's paper and taking its able rival, the TIMES. In the rural districts of New-York, where the Tribune philosopher's word once was law, and his paper circulated by cities and by hundreds, it now circulates by twos and threes, the rest all having been absorbed by the TIMES, which is bold and fearless in its support of President GRANT. So much at least does Mr. GREELEY affect by his independent course.

The Methodist Book Committee.

The Methodist Book Committee met as usual yesterday morning, and held another secret session, of which no information could be gained by the reporters—although it was stated by some of the members that the report of the expert had been received, but they declined giving any information therein contained. It is altered that the report is not what the Committee expected to hear, and in consequence thereof, it will not be made public, at least before the meeting of the General Conference in Brooklyn. One of the members of the Committee took the trouble to tell a couple of the reporters who were standing about the offices, that although they could not give the detail of the report, he could say that it says that during the last six years the manner in which the books of the Concern have been kept is faultless, and in regard to Mr. HOFFMAN, it was the expert's opinion that there was a perceptible looseness in his department, and that losses had been discovered in the bindery department. Another secret session is to be held today.

THE TURF.

Trotting at Fleetwood Park—Mercer and Jennie B. the Winners.

According to announcements there were two trotting contests at the above-named Park yesterday. The first was a sweepstakes of $600, between the sorrel gelding Albany Boy, formerly W. H. Taylor, the gray gelding Mercer, and the bay mare Topsey, and the second a match for $100 a side, between the gray mare Jennie B. and the bay gelding General Picton. When the horses were called up by the judges the owner of Albany Boy asked leave to draw his horse on account of lameness, and upon examination the request was granted. But very little betting was done on the race, Mercer being a slight favorite over Topsey before the first heat. There was a good attendance of turfmen, drawn out by the fine weather and the prospect of witnessing a couple of spirited contests, in which, however they were disappointed. The following are the particulars:

FIRST HEAT.—Mercer received the word on the second attempt, with Mercer leading a head's length. As they went round the turn they were on even terms, but Mercer broke, and Topsey went to the front, and passed the quarter-pole a length in the lead. Going down the backstretch MANEE got Mercer steady, and he immediately went to work, and took the lead a length, and passed the half-mile pole in that position. On the lower turn he forced three-quarters of a length to the front, Topsey in the meantime breaking up. Coming into the homestretch they were on even terms, but coming up Topsey lead half a length, and kept the advantage within 100 yards of the stand, when Mercer collared her, and finally passed the goal a winner by a neck in 2:38¾. Time of quarter, 38½; half, 1:18¾.

SECOND HEAT.—Mercer was now a decided favorite, and brought $45 to $19 for Topsey. After two failures they got away well together, but they no sooner headed the turn than Mercer went to the front a length, and increased the distance to three lengths at the quarter-pole, which was passed in thirty-nine seconds. Going down the backstretch, Mercer got further away, and was fully four lengths in the van at the half-mile pole. Coming down the turn Topsey closed up the gap a little, and when they turned into the homestretch, she trotted very fast, and closed upon her competitor, but MANEE had Mercer well in hand, and won on the beat by a length, 2:35. Time of half mile, 1:18.

THIRD HEAT.—There was no betting, as the result was a foregone conclusion. At the first attempt she got away, with Mercer a half length in front. On the turn, however, Mercer left his feet and Topsey assumed the lead of a length, which she kept past the quarter-pole in forty seconds. As they went down the backstretch Mercer collared the mare and immediately broke again, Topsey got a length away. As they neared the half-mile pole Mercer got down to his work, and at that point they were head and head. On the lower turn he got away a length and increased the distance half a length more to the three-quarter, when Topsey left her feet and he opened the gap to two lengths. Coming up the stretch Mercer went to pieces, and Mercer won the heat and race easily by three lengths. Time—2:39¾.

The World, the Democracy and the Cincinnati Convention.

From the Brooklyn Eagle.

It is apparent that the tricky and selfish politicians who defeated Judge CHASE's nomination in New-York in 1868, and who betrayed, during the canvass, the nominees they forced on the party by misrepresenting the sentiment of the Democracy of this State, are again at work. Their efforts are now directed toward defeating the success of the Cincinnati movement, by misrepresenting the wishes of the great mass of the Democratic Party, while pretending to favor the co-operation the Cincinnati movement is intended to secure. The following paragraph from a leading article in the New-York World of this morning had not its origin in ignorance. It was inspired by a preconcerted and deliberate purpose to render the co-operation of the Democracy in the Cincinnati movement impossible. We quote from the World:

"If the Cincinnati Convention should prove wise enough, and high-toned enough, to nominate CHARLES FRANCIS ADAMS as its candidate for President, the Democratic Party will indorse the imminent statesman with enthusiasm, heartiness and universal acclamation. In that case it will be of little consequence whether a Democratic National Convention is held or not. A Convention would merely ratify the foregone conclusion of the Democratic masses. If Mr. ADAMS is nominated, the Democratic Party will support him, work for him, and give him their freest sympathies, without waiting for a formal indorsement by their assembled delegates. In that case the Democratic National Convention would be merely a registering body to make a formal record of a foregone decision. Of all the statesmen of the country, Mr. ADAMS is the one man for Presidential use. He is the one Republican whom the Democratic Party can support without condoning anything or making any apologies. Mr. ADAMS' mere name is an all-sufficient recommendation both to all Democrats and to all honest Liberal Republicans. We can all unite on him without the slightest sacrifice of self-respect, and without feeling astonished, much less degraded, at finding ourselves in the same company. We think it fair to make this statement for the information of the Cincinnati Convention; but that body must be guided by its own judgment, the Democratic party will be satisfied."

The Eagle stated yesterday that if the Liberal Republicans nominated at Cincinnati a statesman, he would, in our opinion, secure the support of the Democratic party. We did not announce our choice of a candidate for the Presidency. Any one of a dozen of the Liberal Republicans who are identified with the Cincinnati movement will be satisfactory. In making the selection we had no reason to doubt but that such deference would be paid to the party whose votes must be mainly relied upon for success, as would be necessary, becoming and seemly.

We desire to state now, "for the information of the Cincinnati Convention," that the World has no authority whatever to pledge the Democratic Party to the support of Mr. ADAMS, and that it is our deliberate conviction that it pretends to this authority solely to make a combination between the Liberal Republicans and Independent Democrats, who are in good faith desirous of electing a statesman to the Presidential office, impossible.

The time has now come for plain speaking. The Democratic masses are not owned by any set of men. Their votes cannot be transferred to the nominees of the Cincinnati Convention except that nominee is fairly acceptable to them. They are willing to concede the nomination to the Liberal Republicans. Is it too much to ask Liberal Republicans to consult the wishes of Democrats in making a selection, when on this question they are not themselves united? There is no evidence before the country that Mr. ADAMS has any hearty sympathy with the Liberal Republican movement—beyond the fact that he is a high-toned and cultivated Republican, and it may, possibly, be safely assumed that no man of his class desires Gen. GRANT's re-election. If there be any name named in connection with the Cincinnati nomination, that the Democrats who favor it cannot bring their party up to support, that man is Mr. ADAMS, and the New-York World knows this, and knowing it advocates the selection of Mr. ADAMS, not in the interest of the Cincinnati movement, but with the purpose of defeating it, in the supposed interest of half a dozen fossil Democratic Bourbon leaders in this State, who betrayed the Democracy in New-York in 1868, but who have shown the cloven foot early enough now to enable us to prevent them from repeating the experiment.

TOO MUCH IMPROVEMENT.—A burglar alarm which is nearly all talk, and accompanied by a small map showing that it is a big invention, has in some cases proved a total failure—and not any fancy device for that word would more than cover the satire thing. HOLME's Burglar Alarm Telegraph has had ten years' practical experience—with all improvements of value, and thousands of citizens are using it, and in no case proved a failure. Astonishing!

Six hundred and sixty-five thousand sewing machines made by American companies in 1871! They were nearly all "lock-stitch" machines, and used in every branch of business requiring sewing. Less than five per cent of these were simple thread "chain-stitch" machines, like the Wheeler & Gibbs. A few of these only can be used for special purposes, and the rest are largely disposed of in exchange for old and second-hand "lock-stitch" machines of the better class, like the Wheeler & Wilson, the Singer, and the Howe.

MORE ASTONISHING!!

That the owners of worn-out lock-stitch sewing machines, instead of exchanging them for new machines of a similar make, should offer them in part payment for our Wilcox & Gibbs, when the "lock-stitch" companies themselves would gladly take them on the same terms!

MOST ASTONISHING!!!

That the owners of "new" lock-stitch sewing machines, but a few weeks or months from the factory, should barter them at a great pecuniary loss for the Wilcox & Gibbs; that exchanges are really taking place at the rate of thousands every year, and over, within "less than four cents" of the total, in favor of the Wilcox & Gibbs over its numerous lock-stitch friends!—Advertisement.

SUNDAY EDITION.
SUNDAY EDITION.
SUNDAY EDITION—TRIPLE SHEET.
TRIPLE SHEET.
TRIPLE SHEET.

THE DAILY TIMES of Sunday, April 28, will contain many features of special interest to the general reader.

Among the original sketches specially prepared for this edition will be found one ON BOARDING IN BROOKLYN, giving some interesting information on the subject. This article treats upon a topic that involves 180,000 people. Some interesting facts are afforded relative to life in the City of Churches not generally known.

The second of our Sunday articles is entitled OUTINGS FROM OUR VERY OLDEST EXCHANGES, being an assemblage of quaint advertisements, taken from New-York papers of eighty years ago, showing some of the prominent features of that early period.

STREET MUSICIANS is the title of our third original article, in which considerable information of an interesting character will be found, relative to the life of our street nomads, where they come from, and where they go to.

THE PLANT TRADE is another of our special articles, and treats of the enormous business in this City connected with the raising and sale of flower plants. The reader will be told where the plants come from; how they are propagated, and where they can be obtained.

We shall also publish an article on PISCICULTURE, written by a gentleman thoroughly conversant with the subject. The question of scientific fish breeding is treated in an intelligent manner, and a great deal of information is afforded that cannot fail to be interesting to the general reader.

THE SUMMER RESORTS forms the topic of the sixth article, and contains the latest news about projected improvements at the different watering-places, including Long Branch, Newport and Saratoga. Tourists will find in this article something about the new lines of railroads and steam-boats established for their convenience.

THE VIENNA EXPOSITION.—A special correspondent in Vienna supplies very copious and readable details as to the Universal Exposition to be held in the Austrian capital in 1873. The fact that Vienna will be the objective point of all tourists next year, makes the programme of arrangements of decided interest.

Besides these valuable articles and letters, we shall publish FOREIGN AND DOMESTIC CORRESPONDENCE from our own writers, affording full details of events already briefly noticed by telegraph.

Among the other features of our Sunday edition will be found

EDITORIAL COMMENTS on the leading issues of the day.

THE LATEST HOME AND FOREIGN NEWS by telegraph and the mails.

LOCAL AFFAIRS as reported by our staff of writers.

ART NOTES from local studios, with the latest gossip about the newest pictures.

DRAMATIC SUMMARY OF THE WEEK, containing European and Domestic gossip, with announcements of events.

CURRENT LITERATURE, collated from late Domestic and Foreign Serials.

MILITARY GOSSIP, giving much interesting matter for the information of the National Guard.

With a circulation of a character exceptionally valuable to advertisers, the SUNDAY EDITION of the TIMES is especially recommended to the notice of all desirous of reaching, for business purposes, the best classes of this and neighboring cities. The extraordinary popularity of our Sunday issue continues to maintain a steady ratio of increase.

To insure proper classification, advertisers are requested to send in their notices before 5 o'clock on Saturday evening.

REAL ESTATE TRANSACTIONS.

Business as follows was transacted at the Exchange yesterday, April 26: MULLER, WILKINS & CO., as an executor's sale, by order of the executors of THOMAS WILLIAMS, Jr., deceased, disposed of a three-story high-stoop brick house and lot, known as No. 15 West Thirty-fifth-street, north side, between Fifth and Sixth avenues, for $26,000. Purchaser, LEWIS MCGRUDOR. The same firm also offered at public auction the three-story high-stoop brown-stone house and lot No. 154 West Fiftieth-street, south side, between Seventh and Eighth avenues, for which bids amounting to $16,500 were received, but no sale effected. The two other pieces of property announced for sale yesterday by the same auctioneers, namely, four-story brown-stone house and lot No. 48 West Fifty-first-street, between Fifth and Sixth avenues, and three-story brick house and lot No. 323 Second-avenue, between Eighteenth and Nineteenth streets, were not offered, having been sold at private sale prior to the proposed auction. The Fifty-first-street property brought $24,500. A. J. BLEECKER, SON & CO., by order of the Supreme Court in foreclosure, under the direction of PHILO T. RUGGLES, Esq., referee, sold the premises known as No 24 West Fifty-first-street, south side, between Fifth and Sixth avenues, embracing a four-story high-stoop brown-stone house, 27.6 by 60, with lease of lot, 27.6 by 100.5, from Columbia College, having eighty-four years to run, ground rent $495 per year, for $31,525; purchaser, Z. JAQUES. No other sales were made, the Sheriff's sale by Wm. KERBELLY, of an interest in property on East Broadway, Henry, Broome and Clinton streets, being adjourned until Monday, May 6. The legal sale of house and lot on East Thirty-second-street, near Fifth-avenue, by CHARLES MCGRAW, on the appearance of the referee, in which was referred to yesterday, has been adjourned until May 7.

The out-of-town sales conducted on Thursday, April 25, resulted as follows: That held at Plainfield, N. J., by A. D. MELLICK, Jr., & BRO., at which quite an extensive line of real estate, formerly owned was sold by JOHN W. DORTON, was offered, was largely attended, and the prices realized were considered good. Full details, with names of purchasers, are given below. All the Hillside property, containing 112½ acres, was not sold, but the balance will be disposed of at private sale by JAMES M. MILLER, at Yonkers, Westchester County, by order of the Supreme Court, under the direction of STEPHEN S. MARSHALL, Esq., referee, was also well attended, and all the property, embracing a large plot of ground and dwelling, and fifteen lots fronting on Jefferson-street, was sold for $20,850 in the aggregate. The residence was purchased by Mr. WILLIAM G. MARSH. The three houses and lots (latter each 14 by 80) situated on Eighteenth-street, Brooklyn, between Seventh and Eighth avenues, known as Nos. 423, 425 and 427, sold by JERE. JOHNSON, Jr., on Thursday, in that city, by order of the executors of the estate of THOS. WILLIAMS, Jr., deceased, were purchased by MICHAEL G. CARROLL for $10,500 each.

Today, at the Exchange, the legal sale of a lot on the north-west corner of Third avenue and One Hundred and Third-street, JAMES M. MILLER, auctioneer, is expected to occur; and at College Point, Long Island, on the ground, at 3 o'clock, A. T. JOHNSON, Jr., will offer for sale a very desirable and eligible located country residence owned, and until lately occupied, by FRITZ KORNIG, Esq. The property embraces a large villa-house, together with three and a half acres of choice land handsomely laid out, and as excellent opportunity for an investment by those looking for a home in the country is here presented. Descriptive maps of property and free tickets for auction can be obtained of the auctioneer, at his office, No. 25 Nassau-street. This sale should meet with success.

For next week the auctions proposed are few in number, and not of special interest. A full list, however, of such as are to take place will be made out and published on Monday. The late date of May occurring during the week interferes materially with the real estate business. The lot advertised for some days past for sale at auction, at the Exchange on Tuesday next, by V. K. STEVENSON & SON, located on Tenth-avenue, between Sixty-fourth and Sixty-fifth streets, has been withdrawn from the public market, having been disposed of at private sale by the firm named for $8,800.

At the invitation of O. H. PIERSON, real estate auctioneer, No. 5 Pine-street, quite a party of those interested in New-Jersey real estate, made a trip yesterday to the new town of Wyoming, N. J., on the Delaware, Lackawanna and Western Railroad, for the purpose of viewing the improvements recently effected in that section. The occasion was one of both business and pleasure, and enjoyable. Several auctions will be held at Wyoming during the coming season, to which, as soon as the arrangementsfor the same are completed, allusion will be made. The property to be offered is finely situated, and should sell well.

At private sale, ALBERT C. LAMSON & SON, No. 8 Pine-street, report having recently disposed of the following realty at the prices noted: Four lots on the north side of seventy-second-street, 146 feet east of Ninth-avenue, $4 by 204.4, for $37,000; four lots on the south side of Seventy-second-street, 200 feet west of Nineth-avenue, 100 by 102.2, for $33,000, and six lots on the south-west corner of Ninty-sixth-street and Madison-avenue, for $66,000; total, $141,000.

REAL ESTATE AT AUCTION.

TO MANUFACTURERS.—ASSIGNEE'S SALE IN BANKRUPTCY.—District Court of the United States, District of New-Jersey.—In the matter of THE ELIZABETH NOVELTY STEAM MANUFACTURING COMPANY, Bankrupt.

The undersigned will sell at public auction, on the premises hereinafter occupied by the said bankrupt corporation at Elizabethport, New-Jersey, on MONDAY, the 6th day of May, 1872, at 2 o'clock in the afternoon, the entire valuable real estate of the said Corporation, consisting of 1st—A tract comprising twelve lots between Water and south streets, 167 feet by 200, with front on both streets.

2d—The saw-mill property, including lock, canal, and basins, with ample yard room and sheds for storage. The mill is fully equipped, of large capacity, and in condition for early operation. This property has a frontage on the Elizabeth creek of about 270 feet, with ample room for wharfage facilities, and is now profitably operated for years, and contains an extensive and lucrative trade.

3d—The wheel factory, a plot of ground on 1st-st. 175 by 200, with the substantial frame-work shops, 30 by 82 and 30 by 62, well adapted for wagon work of any description.

4th—The Spoke Mills, consisting of a plot of ground, 100 by 275 feet, with front on Rail-road, of about 275 feet, on which are the original dock, and a large frame warehouse, fourteen rooms, and pretty cottage-house with nine rooms; stable, carriage-house, and all necessary out-buildings; elevated, the view; grounds highly improved; a thousand feet of fruit trees and shrubbery; grape, and every description.

5th—A tract, 150 feet by about 300 feet, running through to Elizabeth Creek.

6th—A tract, 100 feet by about 858 feet, next westerly of the last mentioned.

7th—A tract, 100 feet by about 230 feet, next westerly of the last mentioned.

8th—A tract, 100 feet by about 302 feet, next westerly of the last mentioned.

9th—A tract, 100 feet by about 304 feet, next westerly of the last mentioned.

10th—A tract, 85 feet by about 275 feet, with front on the creek of about 276 feet.

Each of the above lots has a front upon Elizabeth Creek, which is navigable for vessels of moderate draught, and the locality possesses the amplest facilities for water and railway communication, presents numerous sites for manufacturing operations of any description.

Immediately after the real estate will be sold 144 pine logs, 45 oak logs, 236 hemlock logs, 1 large iron safe, a quantity of office furniture, wheel machines, desks, 2 platform scales.

The sale will be absolute at the time named.

Further particulars at the office of the undersigned, where a map of the property can be seen.

7 PER CENT.
FIRST MORTGAGE
GOLD BONDS.

At 90 and accrued interest in currency.
THIRTY YEARS TO RUN, AND ISSUED FOR $20,000 PER MILE.

This road forms the shortest and most direct route from the great anthracite and semi-bituminous coal fields of Pennsylvania into the central part of this State, and will run in connection with the New-York Central Road, which it crosses at Cayuga Bridge. Traversing, as it does, the finest and most populous agricultural districts, generally known as the "GARDEN OF THE STATE" its local traffic will be large, and its greatest source of revenue will be from its coal business. The road is being rapidly built, and will be in active operation during this year. From our knowledge of this enterprise, and after the most thorough investigation, we most confidently recommend the Bonds as a safe investment. We offer, for the present, the Bonds at 90 and accrued interest in currency.

The Road runs from Buffalo to the Detroit River, and is the Eastern link in the new AIR LINE FROM BUFFALO TO CHICAGO, and has been under construction for about two years past by railroad men who have seen the necessity for a STEEL RAIL, LOW GRADE SHORT ROUTE between the great railroad systems which diverge from Chicago, Toledo and Buffalo.

Among the builders of the road, by whose cash subscriptions 230 miles (out of 320) have already been graded, bridged and made ready for the superstructure, a large part of the steel rails bought, all of the materials for the stations, and a part of the equipment purchased, are:

MILTON COURTRIGHT, JOHN F. TRACY DAVID DOWS, WM. D. SCOTT, HENRY FARNHAM, R. A. FORSYTH, HENRY B. FOSTER, JOHN M. BURKE, E. L. SYKES, Jr., E. F. ALLEN, all directors, either in the Chicago and Northwest, or the Chicago, Rock Island and Pacific; GEO. OPDYKE, of the Midland Road; JOHN B. ALLEN, SIDNEY DILLON, DANIEL DREW, J. S. CASEMENT, J. & J. CASEY, C. S. CHAPMAN, JOHN ROSS, DAVID STEWART, and F. K. WINSTON.

THE ROAD will be
33 MILES SHORTER THAN ANY OTHER ROAD,
either BUILT or in contemplation between Buffalo and Chicago, and will also shorten the distance between Toledo and Buffalo twenty-three miles.

THE MAXIMUM GRADE on the entire line does not exceed FIFTEEN FEET to the mile—and Ninety-six per cent. of the road IS STRAIGHT.

THE ROAD WILL BE COMPLETED and in running order on or before Dec. 31 of this year.

The principal and interest of the bonds are payable either in New-York, London or Frankfort.

We confidently recommend the Bonds to all classes of investors.

We offer for sale $100,000 of the above bonds in block. By act of reorganization of the Company, these bonds are convertible into the First Preferred Shares of the Company, which amount to only 17,000 shares, and into the Consolidated Bonds (recently negotiated at Amsterdam) of six millions of dollars, which cover the entire line of 230 miles of completed road, together with all the rolling stock and real property, to the value of more than ten millions of dollars. The road crosses the entire State of Illinois, and connects with the mammoth iron bridges spanning the Mississippi at Keokuk and Burlington. The income of the road for the year will not sufficient to pay interest on all the bonded indebtedness and dividend on the preferred shares.

Progress of the Carlist Insurrection in Spain.

Two Hundred People Burned and Whole Villages Destroyed.

An International Prison Congress to be Held in London.

SPAIN.

Senor Rosas Elected President of the Cortes—Radicals Presented to the King—Eight Thousand Insurgents in the Field.

MADRID, April 26.—Señor ROSAS, the nominee of the Ministerialists, has been elected President of the Cortes by a large majority. The other officers chosen by the Cortes are also supporters of the Government.

ZABILLA, MORET and other leading Radicals were yesterday presented to the King. The circumstance is regarded as of much importance in view of the reports that the Republicans were in league with the Carlists in the insurrection.

A company of twenty-two gensdarmes attacked and dispersed a band of Carlists, 300 in number, in the Province of Valladolid.

It is officially stated that the number of insurgents actually in the field is about 8 000.

Fifteen Thousand Carlists Engaged in the Insurrection—What the Radicals May do.

MADRID, April 26.—There is a vast increase in the number of Carlist bands through out the Kingdom. Fifteen thousand persons are now engaged in the insurrection against the Government. A royal proclamation has been issued, declaring many places in a state of siege. The Government refuses to furnish the Press any information relative either to the Carlists' movements. There is a great demand from the provinces where the Carlists are most active for troops to assist in driving out the disturbers. Marshal SERRANO with 6,000 troops has gone to Navarre. His presence at the head of this force has checked the operations of the Carlists in that department. Marshal SERRANO will be appointed Generalissimo of the forces operating against the insurrectionists. Marshal CONCHA will also be given a high command. It is believed that the future of Spain now depends upon the course of the Radicals, and that if they co-operate with the partisans of Don CARLOS the revolution will be successful.

Don Carlos Reported to Have Left Geneva in Disguise.

PARIS, April 26.—It is now positively stated on the best authority that Don CARLOS left Geneva in disguise on the night of the 24th inst. Should he be captured in Spain with arms in his hands he will be shot. He cannot yet have reached the Spanish frontier.

Preliminaries of the Carlist Revolt.

The rising of the Carlists in Spain has assumed sufficiently formidable dimensions to render an account of its earlier phases, of some little interest. In the elections for Deputies to the Cortes, held in the beginning of April, are to be found the true preliminaries of the revolt. The elections lay between the Ministerial parties, or those who support the present régime, on one side, and a coalition of all the elements of opposition to it on the other. The complexion of the Opposition will be better understood by a reference to the following analysis of the political stripe of the Deputies elected on what we should call the Opposition ticket: Radical Republicans, 62; Federalist Republicans, 42; Carlists, 38, and Alphonsists, (i. e. partisans of the son of the Ex-Queen,) 32; total, 174. On the Ministerial side 201 Deputies were elected, leaving a majority for the Government of 27. As seventeen electoral colleges had not been heard from at the date of this estimate, (April 9,) the relative strength of the Ministerial and Opposition Parties may have, since then, been considerably changed. The Ministry and its agents were as unscrupulous as the Ex-Tammany chiefs could have been, in the means employed to obtain a victory at the polls. The Minister of War (Gen. REY) was compelled to retire from the Cabinet because he refused to order the exile of a Brigadier-General who had been audacious enough to run against an official candidate, and to defeat him. On the eve of the election printed lists bearing the number of Ministerial candidates only, were distributed to the troops in garrison in Madrid, and certain officers who demanded to be supplied with the names of the Opposition candidates also, before they would conduct their troops to the electoral colleges, were placed on half-pay, and the regiments who voted the Opposition ticket were ordered to distant posts of service. The authorities at Seville struck off the names of 17,000 Opposition voters from the rolls without any valid reason. In one of the electoral colleges, a secretary was beginning to protest against the conduct of the President in counting for the Ministerial candidate votes cast for the Opposition, when the President stabbed him to the heart. The Ministerial candidate was successful and apparently in recognition of his zeal, the assassin was left unmolested. But, perhaps the most characteristic incident of the election period was the address made to the garrison of Malaga by a certain Gen. BUCHETA, who had been newly appointed Commandant. It ran as follows:

"SOLDIERS: I am informed that the inhabitants of Malaga may probably attempt a rising on the occasion of the elections. Should that happen, don't imagine that I shall send you into the streets to take possession of the barricades. No; we will repair outside of the city, and with our artillery we will destroy Malaga. Afterward, we will return and take a walk in the midst of the ruins and the dead bodies of the inhabitants. Let no quarter be given to any one; I don't want prisoners because they might escape. I want each of you to tell me: 'General, I have killed so many men without making a single prisoner.' My opinion is that to repress the one-half of the population, it is necessary to kill the other. I speak to you in the name of the King."

Whether this amiable policy is approved at Madrid or not, the fact of its declaration going unreproved, is sufficiently significant of the state of public feeling in Spain. In the midst of the election turmoil, a letter, from which the following is an extract, appeared in the journals devoted to the cause of Don CARLOS:

"The Duke of MADRID, on the occasion of the saint's-day of his birth, has received numerous addresses of felicitation from the Catholic Monarchical Juntas. . . . The earnest entreaties of men of standing, dictated by faith, by union, by blind obedience and by hope, more and more urge the Duke of MADRID to hesitate no longer in his steadfastly-cherished enterprise of saving the country. Such, he adores. The Duke of MADRID will count, after a brief interval, upon still more expressive evidences of adhesion, and still better marked demonstrations of affection. He counts also upon rendering himself worthy of the hopes which Spaniards repose in him."

This letter was dated Geneva, April 6. A few days afterward bands of the peasantry of Valencia were in arms, and in a little over a fortnight it is announced that the youth of twenty-four, who inherits the title of Duke of MADRID and the pretensions of Don CARLOS to the Spanish throne, has from 8,000 to 15,000 adherents in armed revolt against the Government, and that he has lately left Geneva in disguise, for the purpose of crossing the Spanish frontier.

GREAT BRITAIN.

The International Prison Congress—An Attempt to Surround the Premises.

LONDON, April 26.—In the House of Lords, to-night, the Earl of CARNARVON asked whether the Government intended to convey any portion of the expenses in connection with the International Prison Congress, to be held in London in July, at the instance of the American Prison Reform Association.

The Marquis of LANSDOWNE, Junior Lord of the Treasury, replied that an application for the assistance of the Government had been made, but had been refused, as it would furnish a bad precedent to make such use of the public moneys.

In the House of Commons Mr. TREVELYAN, member for Hawick, moved that householders residing outside of parliamentary burroughs be given the franchise, and Mr. FAWCETT seconded the motion. Mr. GLADSTONE and others opposed the motion, which was negatived by a vote of 149 to 76.

VESUVIUS.

The Eruption Increasing—Two Hundred Persons Burned by the Lava—Villages Threatened with Destruction—Thousands of People Encamped in the Fields—A Grand and Terrible Scene.

ROME, April 26.—At the sitting of the Chamber of Deputies this evening, Prime Minister LANZA read a dispatch dated Naples, this afternoon, saying: "The eruption of Vesuvius is increasing and becoming more serious. Two hundred persons have been burned by the lava. Flames burst from the earth under the feet of the inhabitants. Torre del Greco is in danger of destruction; the people are flying from the town; temporary provision is made for them by the authorities."

NAPLES, April 26—Evening.—A fresh crater opened in Vesuvius today. The ashes and lava threaten the villages on the mountain side, and the inhabitants are removing their household goods. Thousands are encamped in the fields. The Ministers have been summoned from Rome, and are coming to make provision for the houseless people.

The bay is covered with boats filled with spectators. The scene is grand and terrible beyond description. The flames at times shoot up to a great height, and masses of rock are ejected with earthquake shocks which are distinctly felt in the city.

CALIFORNIA.

The Republican State Convention—Gen. Grant Indorsed and the Delegates to Philadelphia Instructed to Vote for Him—The Goat Island Scheme.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 26.—The Republican State Convention ignores the Goat Island question. The Convention indorses GRANT, and has instructed the delegates at Philadelphia to vote as a unit for him. The Press of San Francisco are unanimous in denouncing the Goat Island scheme. All the leading papers of the State, including the Stockton Independent, Sacramento Union, Oakland Transcript, San Joaquin Republican, San José Mercury and San José Patriot, all denounce the scheme as strongly as do the San Francisco Press.

Meeting of the Surviving Officers of the Third Army Corps.

PHILADELPHIA, Penn., April 26.—Arrangements for a meeting in this city on the 4th of May of the surviving officers of the Third Army Corps are now complete. The programme includes luncheon in Fairmount Park, a visit to Independence Hall and a banquet in the evening. Among those who have signified their intention to be present are Gens. Joe. Hooker, Heintzleman, Mott, Sharpe, McAllister, Rusling, Hobart Ward and Charles K. Graham.

Memorial Day in Selma, Ala.

SELMA, Ala., April 26.—Memorial Day was duly observed here. The business houses were all closed and the bells tolled from 5 to 6 o'clock, evening. The fire companies, the Chamber of Commerce, and citizens en masse formed in procession, headed by the children of the different schools, and repaired to the cemetery, where they decorated with flowers equally the graves of those who had worn the blue and gray.

Fires in the Shawangunk Mountains.

CITY OF KINGSTON, N. Y., April 26.—Additional information in regard to the fires in the Shawangunk Mountains, from Ellenville, says that a large fire is now raging in the mountains just south of that village. To-night it is raging with unabated violence, and its spread is apprehended. The fire is supposed to have been caused by sparks from a locomotive on the New-York and Oswego Railroad. The air in this city and vicinity is densely filled with smoke from the burning woods. GALE and CHAMBERLIN lost about 300 cords of wood.

THE BURROUGHS MURDER.

Testimony of the Coroner and Prof. Doremus.

The trial of LIBBIE GARRABRANT for the murder of RANSOM P. BURROUGHS, in December last, was continued, yesterday, in the Passaic County Court of Oyer and Terminer. Dr. QUIN, the Coroner, resumed his testimony as follows: I went to the Franklin-street house on Wednesday, Dec. 27, and found BORROUGHS' body lying upon two chairs; the body was frozen and slightly discolored, as if decomposition had commenced and been stopped by the freezing; the man had been dead several days, and possibly as long as a month; I made inquiries, but could find no one who had seen deceased within three weeks; Mr. HAND gave me a letter and also a paper marked "poison," which had been taken from the vest of the dead man; at the inquest the paper marked "poison" was identified by Mr. SMITH, the druggist; I saw LIBBIE GARRABRANT and asked her how long since she had seen BURROUGHS; she answered, ten or twelve days; I asked her if BURROUGHS could write; she answered, a little; she usually wrote his letters; I asked her if she would write; she said she would, and writing materials furnished; I dictated to her the contents of the note found on BURROUGHS; she wrote as I dictated; I asked her if she had not written the previous note, and she said she had not; I impaneled a jury, and commenced an inquest on the following day, Dec. 28.

The witness was cross-examined at length to show that the prisoner had not been properly warned as to her answers; that advantage was taken of the ignorance of the girl as to the effect of her answers, and that the Coroner acted as a detective, and tried to fix the guilt upon the prisoner.

Prof. DOREMUS, of New-York, who made the analysis of the contents of the stomach, was next sworn. He had found arsenic to the extent of perhaps half a grain, and was of the opinion that probably five grains had been administered; arsenic was pronounced to be present by no less than twenty separate tests.

The next witness was Dr. BLUNDELL, who testified to the results of the post-mortem examination. The Court adjourned at 4 o'clock, before the conclusion of the evidence of this witness.

Personal.

Dr. M. B. Anderson, President of the Rochester University, is at the St. Denis Hotel. Inspector-General Jas. McQuade, of Gov. Hoffman's staff, is at the Gilsey House. Major J. W. Cushing, of Boston; Rev. B. F. Rawling, of Indiana, and Dr. Wm. S. McEwing, of Louisville, Ky., are at Earle's Hotel. Hon. J. H. Moore and Roger N. Sherman, of Washington, D. C.; Lieut. E. L. Zalinski, of the United States Army, and Rev. B. Mitchell, of Sioux City, are at the Astor House. Gen. M. T. Malone, of New-York; Gen. John S. Tyler, of Boston, and Col. R. C. Wright, of Rio Janeiro, are at the New-York Hotel. Oakes Ames, M. C., of Massachusetts; Wm. Williams, M. C., of Buffalo; Wm. L. Scott, of Erie, Penn., and Judge E. W. Mason, of Louisiana, are at the Fifth-Avenue Hotel. Col. J. F. Ritter, of the United States Army, Col. B. F. Hudson, of Mississippi; Judge J. L. Penmarton, of Alabama, and Dr. J. H. H. Tucker, of the United States Army, are at the Grand Central Hotel. Hon. H. H. Smith, of Michigan; Major W. W. Rollins, of South Carolina; M. A. Shoffenburgh, United States Marshal, Denver, Colorado, and Henry B. Carrington, of the United States Army, are at the St. Nicholas Hotel.

Fanny Hyde's Brother Arrested as an Accessory Before the Fact.

During the recent trial, in Brooklyn, of Mrs. FANNY HYDE, for the murder of Mr. WATSON, it transpired that her brother, SAMUEL WHEELER, who accompanied the prisoner when she purchased the fatal pistol, had probably been aware of the use for which it was designed. It was also proven that upon learning of the shooting, he exclaimed to his sister: "Oh, FANNY, I told you not to do that!" The District-Attorney immediately took measures to have WHEELER arrested, but he had left Brooklyn. After the Police had made several unsuccessful efforts to discover the young man's whereabouts, a watch was placed on the letters received by the family through the Post-office, which resulted in his being traced to and arrested on Thursday, in Philadelphia. He was yesterday taken to Brooklyn, and lodged in the Raymond-street Jail.

Edward S. Stokes—A Further Delay in His Appeal.

The motion to settle the bill of exceptions in the case of EDWARD S. STOKES, under indictment for the murder of JAMES FISK, Jr., which was to have been heard yesterday, before Judge CARDOZO, in the Court of Oyer and Terminer, was adjourned to Tuesday next, owing to the death of a child of Mr. ELDRIDGE T. GERRY, one of the counsel for Mr. STOKES.
